Solemnity of Epiphany

Isaiah 60-1-6; Ps. 71; Ephesians 3:2-6; Matthew 2:1-12

All the readings for today's feast underscore the welcome extended to all in God's embrace. Isaiah speaks of how people from every nation will stream toward the renewed Jerusalem, all bearing their gifts and proclaiming God's praises. The responsorial psalm likewise sings of how every nation on earth will adore God's anointed one. The letter to the Ephesians emphasizes that the Gentiles are "coheirs, members of the same body and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel" (3:6). There are no second-class members and no privileges for those who had priority in the faith. All are equal co-members.

The very insistence on the equal status of Gentiles, backed up with the assertion that this has now been revealed to the apostles and prophets by the Spirit, reveals the struggles of the early Christian communities to make this a reality. The difficulties in welcoming Gentiles have long ago been overcome, but others still face us today. What welcome is given to people of different races? Of different socioeconomic strata? To women? To those whose marital status is irregular?

To those of a different sexual orientation?
Facing our prejudices and working to dismantle them is a most difficult task. It can take a lifetime, but it is possible to do with the help of the Spirit, who continues to reveal the co partnership of all in the body of Christ

—Sr. Barbara Reid, OP

THE EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

The glory of the Lord has shown upon us, and shall ever be manifest among us, until the day of his return. Through the rhythms of times and seasons, let us celebrate the mysteries of salvation.

Let us recall the year's culmination, the Easter Triduum of the Lord: His Last Supper, His Crucifixion, His Burial and His Rising, celebrated between the evening of the 18th of April and the evening of the 20th of April.

Each Easter - as on each Sunday - the Holy Church makes present the great and saving deed by which Christ has forever conquered sin and death.

From Easter are reckoned all the days we keep holy. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will occur on the 5th of March. The Ascension of the Lord will be commemorated on the 1st of June. Pentecost, the joyful conclusion of the season of Easter, will be celebrated on the 8th of June. And this year, the First Sunday of Advent will be on the 30th of November.

Likewise, the pilgrim Church proclaims the Passover of Christ in the feasts of the holy Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles and the Saints, and in the commemoration of the faithful departed.

To Jesus Christ, who was, who is and who is to come, Lord of time and history, be endless praise, for ever and ever. AMEN!

Parking Lot

Sometimes, when there are events at the university on Sundays or Saturday evenings, you will have noticed a bottleneck at the entrance to the parking lot, and you can't get into the parking lot or onto the street as quickly as you would like.

We appreciate your patience in these circumstances. We could simply close the lot to all but parishioners, but we would lose considerable income which is vital for the restoration of the church. We count on your gentleness with each other and the parking attendants.

Similarly, you may occasionally be questioned upon entering the lot, especially if the attendant is new on the job.

Please accord them every courtesy. Theirs is not an easy job.
