FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Amos 7:12-15; Ps. 84; Eph. 1:3-14; Mark 6:7-13

Today's readings speak of vocation. In the first, Amos tells how God called him from his work as shepherd to become a prophet. Since prophets trouble our consciences, we would prefer that they prophesied elsewhere; one of the priests at the national shrine ordered Amos to leave. The gospel tells of the mission Jesus gives to the Twelve to preach, to exorcise, and to heal. They are the first missionaries, and they must travel light, relying on God and accepting the hospitality which is offered them. Preaching the gospel is a heavy responsibility, and its preachers must be willing to do without whatever deflects them from their purpose. Jesus warns that they will not be welcome everywhere. The letter to the Ephesians gives thanks for our vocation as God's adopted sons and daughters. We have been won by Christ's blood, freed from sin, and introduced into the mystery of God's plan. Every Christians has the vocation to bless and praise God and to give our Father glory.

Communion to the Sick

As the three communities of Blessed Sacrament Church, Holy Name of Mary Church, and Assumption Church merge to form the one Faith Community of Assumption Parish, this is a good time to address a pressing need for our Parish. The Ministry of Communion to the sick.

- 1.) If you are currently bringing Communion to someone (and have a pix), or
- 2.) If you are interested in becoming a member of this important Ministry
- 3.) If you want to learn about the "Rite of Communion to the sick"

Then this announcement is for you!

There will be two (2) workshops in an attempt to accommodate everyone. The first will be held on Wednesday, July 25, from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.. For anyone that can not make it to this workshop, the second will be held on Saturday July 28, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. If you can not make either of these workshops then you will need to contact Fr. Paul McGill C.S.B. at 519-253-2493 ext. 23.

Assumption Parish has a deep concern for those among us who are separated from the community due to illness or other conditions. As a Minister of Communion to the sick you are representing the whole Parish. It is important that you are properly trained and equipped to carry out this Ministry. Only people who have participated in one of these communion to the sick workshops may represent Assumption Parish. You will be commissioned on the weekend of Saturday, August 4th, or Sunday August 5th, at the Mass you attend. The workshops will also explain how this will happen. If you have any questions please contact Fr. Paul McGill C.S.B.. Please register as soon as possible by calling in your name and telephone number to 519-253-2493 ext. 23.

With thanks Fr. Paul McGill C.S.B.

PARISH
NEWS

Parish Orientation Program Begins

Our parish has been busy welcoming lots of new people into our community, for which we give God great praise. If you are new to the parish, OR have been attending for a while and interested to hear about the many things happening, we invite you to join us for our new orientation program.

“This is Home” Breakfast and Orientation will be offered August 5th after the 9 AM Mass in the Assumption University Studio (2629 Riverside Dr. W). Class lasts from 10 AM – 12 PM. For more information, please contact Fr. Chris at cvalka@assumptionu.ca.

Please note, attendance is required for anyone who plans to get married at Assumption, have children baptized, or use Assumption Parish as a pastoral reference.

Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend we welcomed the communities of Blessed Sacrament and Holy Name of Mary to our church. I want to extend my personal thanks to all those worked so very hard to make this such a wonderful moment for all of us. The members of the Pastoral Council all volunteered their help. A special thanks to Kevin Alexander who headed the organization as well as Tom Taylor for his wonderful sign. Also, so many parishioners brought goodies and for this I thank you as well.

Another sign of how great this parish community is....I do hope you know this. I will have a few things to write next week concerning the Campaign. May you all enjoy the summer sun (and thank the Lord that for a break in that very warm weather). Remember that Rosary Chapel is open daily for you to have some quiet time with the Lord. And it's air conditioned !!!!!!!
