Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—July 17, 2016

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

When I lived in Edmonton, there was an ad on the city buses that said something like, "I don't need to use a leash with my dog. He's always very well behaved—ooh, look! A squirrel!" Of course, you can visualize this very well behaved dog that forgets everything and darts out after the squirrel. It's just what dogs do. It's also what I seem to do, so very often.

If you've been to the parish offices, you know that Sally keeps a very neat desk. She works on one thing at a time, and puts it away before beginning anything else. Sometimes I sigh with envy when I walk through her office. If you've been in my office, you'll know why: No matter how often I clean, and make resolutions to keep things neat and organized, it doesn't take long before I'm in a messy environment once again. I start working on something, and remember something else I was supposed to do, and then another thing... and then the phone rings, or I get an email, and somebody asks me a question, and I go looking for the answer, and... You probably get the picture: I'm rather scattered. I often waste time and energy. I take some consolation that numerous personality tests that I've done say that's the way I am; it's part of my "energy," part of my leadership style.

I think I sympathise with Martha in this weekend's gospel passage. I can just hear Jesus saying to me, "Maurice, Maurice, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing." And that thing, of course, is focus on the Lord, on sitting at his feet as a disciple. I need to be reminded of that often. Indeed, it has been proven that meditation improves focus and concentration.

And I also need to be reminded that Mary was not Jesus' only friend; Martha was, too. Her worry and distraction still served a purpose. As I write this, I've just arrived in London, to be part of a leadership training program sponsored by the diocese. Good Leaders, Good Shepherds is an internationally recognized program that helps a pastor learn more about his leadership style, and then use his unique qualities to become a more effective leader. Bishop Fabbro suggested I enrol in this program, which will be offered over two summers: this week, one week in August, and three weeks in summer 2017. I ask your prayer for me and for all the priests in the London diocese who are part of this. I pray that the Lord, who takes each one of us as we are, and uses us for his good, may grant us grace to know his will, and wisdom and blessing to put ourselves at the service of his people.

M. Maurice

Quotable Pope Francis

The happiness that everyone desires can be expressed in any number of ways and attained only if we are capable of loving. It is always a matter of love; there is no other path. The true challenge is that of who loves the most.

Liturgy Corner

Part 5 of a 12 part series about the design of Catholic churches

Part 5: The Altar

The altar of sacrifice, which is also the Lord's table, should be the focal point of a church. All the rites of the Church flow from it. The Church teaches that "the altar is Christ" so it should be crafted with appropriate dignity (Built of Living Stones, 56–57). It is preferable that a church have only one altar, signifying the one Christ and the one Eucharist.

The altar should ordinarily be attached to the floor. The mensa, or table, should be made of natural stone, to signify Christ Jesus, the living stone (1 Peter 2:4), although noble wood is permissible, and should be possible to walk around it. If desired, relics of saints may be deposited beneath the altar, but not in the altar itself.

The 2nd step of RCIA The Catechumenate

The Catechumenate is an extended period during which the candidates are given suitable pastoral formation and guidance, aimed at training them in the Christian life. It is a time for continuing to build community within the group, getting to know the parish community, learning about the Catholic Church and exploring important Scripture passages. More importantly, it is a time for continuing to examine God's presence in our lives, developing prayer life, entering into the communal worship of the parish, fostering conversion, developing or improving our relationship with God.

If you or someone you know would like to know more about becoming Catholic, please let us know. The Church welcomes all! Catholics who want to help welcome others into the Church are needed too. Contact Kevin Mannara, CSB, at the parish office or at kmannaracsb@gmail.com. There is no obligation for those seeking to initiate a relationship with Christ or to learn more about the Catholic Church.

4 Stages of Marriage

The four stages of marriage are (1) Romance, (2) Disillusionment, (3) Misery, and (4) Awakening. Many marriages experience the first three stages. Marriages that end in divorce never make it to the 4th Stage of Awakening. If your marriage suffers from Disillusionment or Misery, please contact Retrouvaille. For confidential information about, or to register for the upcoming program beginning with a weekend on August 19, 20 and 21, 2016, call 1-800-705-6356. Assumption Cemetery Update

The caretakers from Heavenly Rest Family of Cemeteries continue with planned renovations at Assumption Cemetery. To date they have power washed the grotto's statues and painted its cross, cleared off some grave markers and repaired fallen monuments, and secured the foundation of the Lavin Mausoleum. They are also looking into lighting the grotto.

Their work at maintaining Assumption Cemetery is greatly appreciated! If you have any concerns about needed repairs at your loved ones graves please contact Heavenly Rest directly.

This summer we will be publishing a weekly Bulletin. In the past it has been done once a month during the summer. Mass intentions will be available throughout the summer.

A huge thank you to Janisse Funeral Home and Managing Funeral Director Douglas Krystia for the donation of over 300 chairs.

They will be put to good use at both Rosary Hall at Assumption and the McEwan Campus/Holy Name of Mary Parish Hall.

Our Advent decorations won a contest for creative use of banners in a place of worship. They told us that we have a beautiful church which they will be feature on their website.
