JULY 9, 2023 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time /A
14ª Domenica del Tempo Ordinario — 9 LUGLIO, 2023

From the Administrator's Desk...

It's often said that children have a unique way of viewing the world. I'm reminded of that fact every time I have a chance to visit my niece and nephew. It's amazing how they can look at the world in a much simpler way and see so much magic, so much possibility, and so much opportunity. I think that children even have a better awareness of how God is present in all things, because they constantly view the world with a sense of awe and wonder.

It's sad that as adults, we somehow lose that sense of wonder, and become much more learned and analytical in our approach to the world. What previously thrilled us as a child now seems to be boring, or a waste of time, or even a distraction from what we see to be "more important" in our lives. Our view of the world become colder, as we try to explain everything, or make everything "make sense".

Our readings this weekend challenge this view of the world, and call us to see the world more through the eyes of a child. Zechariah in the first reading speaks of the king coming to his people "humble and riding on a donkey." In the Gospel, Jesus after facing rejection from the scribes and the pharisees, tells us that God has hidden the message of the kingdom from the wise and the learned, and revealed them to infants: literally to the unlearned peoples of first century Palestine. They were the ones who saw that Jesus possessed great power and authority from God, even if he was not wearing the fine robes of a king, or conducting himself as a king would be expected to act.

These readings remind us that God is present in the ordinary and commonplace moments of our lives, and that this is often where we receive his message. Even when the Lord appeared to the prophet Elijah in the Old Testament, he was not to be found in the fire or the storm, but in the tiny whispering sound. Can we learn to see God in this way, instead of always looking for the extraordinary, or the spectacular?

When we learn to approach our faith in this way, then we are reminded that faith is something that we receive from God - it is not something that we achieve for ourselves. Our life is not about making ourselves holy - it is about receiving that gift from God, and living constantly in his love. This is what we do when we take Jesus' yoke upon our shoulders and learn from him. I pray that this week, we may learn to embrace the gentle yoke of the Saviour, and learn to see the world, and our faith, through more childlike eyes.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Assumption C.W.L.

Now that the "hazy, lazy" summer days are upon us, I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for your support of our Council over this past CWL year. Your kindness and generosity in answering our requests to support those less fortunate than ourselves by donating winter apparel, contributing to our "baby shower", for participating in our fund-raising events by purchasing the beautiful poinsettias in December, buying tickets for our Valentine's Day gift basket raffle, and for taking the time to purchase the Mother's Day begonia plants, is so very much appreciated. Again, on behalf of all our CWL members THANK YOU!

The C.W.L DAY AT THE SHRINE will be held on Wednesday, July 26th at St. Patrick's Church and Our Lady of the Rosary Shrine, in Merlin. The day begins at 9:30 a.m. with meet and greet and get to know other members attending from throughout the Diocese, then a Prayer Reflection at 10:00 a.m., with Mass at 11:00 a.m. We will gather to walk through the Shrine to pray the Rosary at 1:15 p.m. Bring your own lunch and a lawn chair. Coffee, tea, and water will be available. Everyone is welcome. Please note you do not have to be a CWL member to attend. Many men also attend this very Spiritual Day at the beautiful Shrine.

Please mark your calendars, our next Catholic Women's League meeting will be held on September 17th after the 11:00 a.m. Mass, in Rosary Chapel please join us as we welcome our new Spiritual Advisor, Deacon Paul Bezaire.
