Thirteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

July 1, 2012

Wisdom 1: 13-25; Ps. 29; 2 Cor. 8:7-15; Mark 5:21-43

We are made for life, not for death, proclaims the book of Wisdom. We are made in God's image, which is destroyed only by spiritual death. The two miracles reported in today's gospel show how Jesus give the fullness of life in response to faith. According to Jewish law, the woman suffering from hemorrhage was considered unclean and prohibited from participation in public worship; anyone she touched would also be unclean. Despite her fright, she is discovered by Jesus, who ignores the taboos and commends her faith, then he encourages Jairus. Having reached the house, Jesus is calm despite the mourners' commotion; for death is merely a sleep from which the Lord will wake us. When Jesus himself rose from the dead, the meaning of the raising of this girl would be understood. St. Paul speaks on quite another subject. he invites generosity toward the poverty-stricken church in Jerusalem. The Corinthians were asked to share their wealth equally. We too should be able to rely on one another for help—because we belong to the communion of saints!

J. Bill

God our Father, you guide everything in wisdom and love.

Accept the prayers we offer for our nation today;
by the wisdom of our leaders and integrity of our citizens,
may harmony and justice be secured
and may there be lasting prosperity and peace.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
