The Body and Blood of Christ—June 23rd, 2019

From the Pastor's Desk...

When Pope Francis wrote Amoris laetitia back in 2016, he mentioned the 1987 Danish film Babette's Feast, most likely making it the very first movie to be mentioned in a papal document. It tells the story of Babette, a French woman who arrives in a Danish village that has been led and influenced by its very strict and rather joyless Protestant minister. For them, life is about work and following rules, not enjoyment. Babette ends up winning a French lottery and decides to spend the money on an extravagant feast for the people of the village. She puts her entire self into the meal. She spends hours and hours, much effort and creativity, as well as all the money she has. And the result is marvelous: In spite of their firm resolve not to enjoy the meal, the people of the village find that they can't contain themselves, and start to "come alive" with each successive course that Babette serves. By the end, not only have they been nourished in an extraordinary way, they are also eternally grateful to Babette for opening their eyes to the simple joys of life.

In so many ways, this is what Jesus does in the Eucharist. He gives of his entire self for our spiritual and physical wellbeing. God wants to nourish us, in both our souls and our bodies. Sometimes I forget the physical part, because the Eucharist has evolved into a symbolic meal. Today's gospel, though, reminds me that Jesus fed people's bodies as well. People ate until they were filled. As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) this weekend, I think the Church is reminding us that we also are called to be Eucharist. Like Jesus and like Babette, we are called to give of ourselves to nourish others, and to help open their eyes to the simple joys of life. This can take the form of a meal prepared for others. I can't count the number of times that I have been delighted and nourished by the food others have prepared for me. It can take the form of an encouraging word, building up and strengthening others.

I think this is one reason Bishop Fabbro has invited the entire diocese to a year of prayer, that we might be a missionary Church forming disciples of Christ. As crazy as it may sound, that can be Eucharist. By being a missionary Church, we cannot help but nourish others, to help people recognize Christ. As disciples we actively follow Christ bringing him to others as nourishment for body and soul. I pray that through each of us, others may come to know and be fed by Christ.

J. Maurice

Reflection for the Week

I am the living bread of heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats of this bread will live forever (John 6:51)

May we always share the gifts through the Eucharist as we seek to renew the face of the earth to bring about your reign.

Bereavement Support Group

Tuesday, June, 25th
7:00pm in Rosary Hall

Contact Marilyn Morrison Bereavement Minister for more information at 519-253-2761.

Remember that we have entered into a year of prayer in our Diocese, uniting us in calling upon the Holy Spirit to help each parish become more mission oriented, and each person to grow in relationship to Christ and to commit to intentional discipleship. The common prayer for this was distributed in a pamphlet in the bulletin a few weeks ago. Please be sure to join in the prayer of our Diocese throughout the entire year in your personal prayer and at parish meetings and gatherings!

Come Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

RCIA

The RCIA process is well underway!

This weekend we officially welcome our new catechumen and our candidates for full communion. Please pray for and journey with these growing disciples of Jesus throughout the year.

If you or someone you know would like to join us, our process continues year round and new inquirers are welcome anytime.

Contact Jean Beneteau for further information.

New faces are always welcome at the Catholic Life faith sharing meeting.

Please feel free to join us on Monday, June 24th at 6:30pm in Rosary Hall for conversation about living our Catholic faith in the circumstances of our lives.

Our gatherings are very informal and end at 8:00pm.
Come join us!
