Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 21, 2015

One of the things we believe about Scripture is that it is the living word of God. Although the words were written down many centuries ago (probably the oldest words we have were written some 3500 years ago, and the most recent date to over 1900 years.), and the events they describe took place sometimes many, many years before the writing, they are still fresh and new for us. I find that especially true with the readings this weekend and last.

I've been here at Assumption Parish for just a few weeks. Even though I have already learned so much, I am realizing that what I have learned is just scraping the surface of the reality of things. The history of the parish is complex and many-faceted. All of you still have much to teach me. People have made decisions that have had adverse effects on others. Some things may make perfect sense on paper, yet when lived out in the lives of a parish community and of individuals, they cause only questioning and hurt. And we live with the consequences.

Enter our readings: When I am completely honest with myself, I know there is a part of me that not only wants to, but believes that I am able to "fix" everything. I can come waltzing in here and heal all your hurts, and put this parish on the right track, whether that be restoring Assumption church, fixing up Holy Name of Mary/McEwan site, or whatever. Instead, I hear God saying to me the words that Job heard some 2500 years ago: "Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped." And the Gospel reminds me—and all of us, I think—that we can't always choose to stop the storms. Jesus, though, will get us through them. Somehow, Jesus will get us through. He is the one who will calm things. And, somehow, our faith says that God really does make all things work out for the best.

In. Maurice

CCLC Catholic Christian Leadership Camp - 2015

Summertime is around the corner, and that means so is camp! The Diocese of London proudly presents Catholic Christian Leadership Camp! Are you or someone you know a high school aged student looking for an incredible opportunity to grow in themselves and in their faith? CCLC is a place where high school aged youth's leadership skills are built by fostering and encouraging God given abilities. This is a fantastic opportunity to strengthen Catholic beliefs and engage teens in a team environment with other youth. CCLC is for youth currently in Grades 8-11 and builds leadership skills and friendships that will last a lifetime!

Visit www.dol.ca for more information or call the Parish Office.

Today You can Give to the Priest Pension Collection

This weekend all parishes and Catholic communities in the diocese are holding a special collection to support the needs of retired priests. This special collection will assist those dedicated priests who are elderly, seriously ill or incapacitated and in need of supplementary assistance. As the number of retired priests increases every year, the Priests' Pension Plan will need to be adequately funded to meet future needs. Your generous contribution not only supports current retirees but will also help provide for the retirement needs of priests who will retire in the future.

This weekend there will be second collection at all the masses. If you would like to make a contribution, envelopes will be available in the pews. If you use your own envelope please mark Priests' Pension with your name, address and envelope number.

SUMMER BULLETINS

The bulletin will be published on a monthly basis for the summer.
There will be one published on July 5, 2015
And one will be published on August 2, 2015

If you would like Mass Intentions put in the bulletin for the month of July please come to the office to book them by June 28, 2015.
