SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Deut. 8:2-26; Ps. 147; 1Cor. 10:16-18; John 6:51-59

"We may say that the unseen Lord is especially seen again in the Eucharist, in this bread and cup set out as his presence among us. Here he who has gone away—in death—comes back in that death held out to us in love. And so this meal is full of the spirit of God. This meal is the wind of God, fire of God, breath of God enlivening us as God's chosen ones. Come and eat. In the meal is all of Easter and all of Pentecost at once. God coming and loving you, Father and Son present in the meal of the spirit."
—Gordon Lathrop

TRANSFORMATION The effect of our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ is to change us into what we receive.

—Pope St. Leo the Great

SHOELESS I wept because I had no shoes, until I saw someone who had no feet.

—Ancient Persian saying

PRAYING One prays best who does not know that one is praying.

—St. Anthony of Padua

AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it's only a year or two old, the word "Amen" has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's feast is about those "Amens" offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our "Amens" and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?
