Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 23, 2013

Zechariah 12:10-11;
Ps. 63; Galatians 3:26-29;
Luke 9:18-24

Jesus asks us, "Who am I for you"?—a question answerable only after familiarity with Jesus in prayer, much as Jesus asks the disciples after his own prayerful conversation with the Father. Then they're most able to recognize their master's identity, and Peter confesses Jesus to be the messiah. They are told to keep this secret as Jesus speaks openly about a harder truth, that he must suffer as the scriptures have foretold. Jesus' followers too, must be willing to die to themselves every day in imitation of their saviour. The first reading prophecies, for those who contemplate the death of God's anointed one, a change of heart and deeper love. The letter to the Galatians contains a revolutionary theology of liberation. Sin divides, faith unites.

We should so prize our unity in Christ that we do away in practice with all racial, religious, social and sexual inequalities in the company of the baptized now, not only in the coming kingdom. We the Church must be converted if we are to live out to the full our profession of faith in Jesus the Lord.

St. Vincent de Paul Report - Assumption/Holy Name of Mary Conference

Our ability to help the poor and needy in our area is dependent on the very generous donations received from the parishioners of Assumption Parish. We sincerely thank you.

The mission of St. Vincent de Paul is to live the gospel by serving Christ in the poor with love, respect, justice and joy. At Assumption/ Holy Name of Mary, we have an active conference with 30 volunteers who go out on Saturday mornings to serve the needy of Windsor West by providing food and vouchers to cover the cost of beds, clothing and groceries. By the end of May we made 145 visits and provided $5200 in assistance through the voucher program. Donations can be made through the St. Vincent de Paul "Poor and Needy" envelopes found in the church pews or you can drop off non-perishable food items in the container at the main entrance to the church.

We welcome new volunteers at any time. Please contact the rectory.

Basilian Lay Associates

The 'Come and See' program at Assumption Parish meets every 3rd Thursday of the month. This Thursday June 27th, 2013 our meeting is at 7 p.m. in the lounge next to the Freed Orman Centre. Our guest speaker will be David Fowler, who is the Director of the Basilian Lay Associates. David is from Texas.

The BLA's are non-ordained members of the Basilian community who partner with the Basilians in their work at Assumption Parish and University of Windsor here in Windsor. The BLA commitment is to prayer and some service.

If you are interested in learning more about the Basilian Lay Associates, please come and join us this Thursday for a very informative evening. Many people ask about what the BLA is all about. This is a great opportunity to 'Come and See' and find out more about this wonderful way of life. Please phone Anne Handsor at 519-258-8765 to confirm that you will be attending.

All Are Welcome
