Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—June 26, 2016

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It felt so good to be back home in Windsor and at Assumption this past weekend! Thank you, each of you, for everything you have done that has made me realize that I am home here in the parish.

We've had a busy week. The Grade 8 students of St. John celebrated their graduation Mass on Tuesday, and St. James on Thursday. This week, Assumption College High School has their Commencement Celebration. Summer has begun! For many of us, there is not a big change in routine between summer and any other time of year. For others it is quite different: a time of endings and new beginnings, of rest and relaxation and renewal. Because of the heat, we tend to move more slowly. It's a time for cookouts and outdoor activities. The city holds festivals.

On July 17 and September 18 our parish will participate in a City of Windsor initiative to promote healthy activity called Open Streets. Kevin Alexander, our Pastoral Council chair, is organizing people and activities that will highlight our parish as a place to nourish our spirits.

And, of course, we celebrate the Assumption of Our Lady, the patroness of our parish, on August 15. Since that day falls on Monday, we will anticipate it with a Mass of Our Lady and a parish picnic on the Sunday, all at our usual place at Holy Name of Mary. Assumption Church building will also be open on both Sunday and Monday for people to come pray, visit, and reminisce. Once we have the hours fixed, I will let you know.

This week is a turning point for Jesus in the Gospel of Luke. If you remember, last Sunday Jesus announced to his apostles that the Messiah was going to have to suffer and die. We begin today's passage with Luke telling us that Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem." Up until now, Jesus' ministry has taken place in the Galilee, mostly around the water. But now we begin his journey to Jerusalem, where he will be betrayed and executed—and then on the third day rise to new life. "Setting one's face" is a Semitic expression that expresses resoluteness and determination, come what may. Jesus fully embraces his destiny; he will not be deterred.

I pray that each of us may do the same: that we may fully embrace God's will for us, whatever that may be, and stand fast in the midst of temptation. Even though difficulties will inevitably arise, if we follow in God's will, it is New Life that awaits us.

Quotable Pope Francis

How many expressions there are, therefore, of God's mercy! This mercy comes to us as closeness and tenderness, and because of this, comes also as compassion and solidarity, as consolation and forgiveness.

Liturgy Corner

Part 2 of a 12 part series about the design of Catholic churches

Part 2: How Lovely Is Your Dwelling Place, O Lord, God of Hosts! (Psalm 84)

B*uilt of Living Stones* (BLS) tells us that the house for the Church is also the house of God on earth (BLS, 23). Its plan reflects the Church community that Christ gathers in it (BLS, 29). Therefore, sacred buildings and their appointments for divine worship should be truly worthy and beautiful, and be signs and symbols of heavenly realities (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], 288). They should contribute to a sense of noble simplicity rather than showiness (GIRM, 292). What is beautiful should be determined by objective standards that will transcend the personal tastes of individuals and stand the test of time.

Many people have a personal preference for one style of church architecture over another, but there is no prototype for how a Catholic church should look. In fact, the Church has never adopted one type of art or architecture, but welcomes the artistic expressions of all people and regions (BLS, 38–43).

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting.

For information please contact Kevin Mannara, CSB, at the parish office or at kmannaracsb@gmail.com.

There is no obligation for those seeking to initiate a relationship with Christ or to learn more about the Catholic Church.

This summer we will be publishing a weekly Bulletin. In the past it has been done once a month during the summer. Mass intentions will be available throughout the summer.

Ever notice that a $10 bill looks so small at the grocery store but so big at church?
