Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 9, 2013

1 Kings 17:17-24; Ps. 30; Galatians 1:11-19; Luke 7:11-17

Jesus is Lord of life. Raising the dead is indeed the sign of God among us, and today's gospel marks the first occasion when Jesus is designated as LORD by Luke. Jesus performs this miracle, not to prove his power, but out of compassion for a widow who had lost her only son. The messiah stands revealed because of Jesus' spontaneous human compassion; with authority Jesus commands the young man to awake from the dead. The Lord of life gives him back to his mother, a verse reminiscent of Elijah's miracle recounted in today's first reading. This prophet, who also ministered in Galilee, through laborious prayer restored to life the only son of a widow to whom he was indebted. In the letter to the Galatians, Paul tells how he was called to preach the gospel to the Gentiles.

Through God's grace alone Saul, the persecutor became Paul the apostle. His message and charge to reveal God's presence in Jesus came from God, not from the Twelve or any human being, Paul insists. Do we accept the Good News as God's message, not a human one? Do we recognize the power of Christ to raise us from death to life with him?

Our parish offers thanks for all those who made our farewell to Fr. Chris last weekend such a grand moment..... great food and fellowship.....

Thank you so very much for the kind words, many gifts and wonderful send off you gave me last Sunday - I am humbled and honored. I thank God for allowing me to have been a part of this parish community. Please be assured of my prayers for you, your families and the continued work of restoration (more than the building); please keep me in yours. Many blessings,

Fr Chris

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION: A CONTINUED CONCERN

Last week, an attempt was made to break into the candle deposit box in Rosary Chapel during regular hours. It was unsuccessful, but will be costly to repair. This obviously happened when no one was in the chapel. I have raised this issue before—that is, according to Diocesan regulations, the Blessed Sacrament can only be exposed when at least 2 persons are in adoration. This is often not the case here. I have often placed the Sacrament back in the tabernacle when I observed that no one was in the chapel. I am very concerned about this and the safety of the Sacrament—which is a solemn responsibility I have as pastor. I do not want to lessen the availability of this practice, but I do need to bring it to the parish's attention once again and seek some final remedy—but we must assure the safety of the Sacrament and those present.

J. Bill
