MARCH 27, 2022 — 4th SUNDAY of LENT/C
4a Domenica di Quaresima/C — 27 marzo, 2022

From The Administrators Desk . . .

The parable of the prodigal son has always been one of my favourite biblical parables. It is a perfect image of God's mercy, and the love that he has for us even before we repent of our sins. In the parable, the father does not wait for the son to return, and to grovel at his feet begging for mercy. At the very moment the father catches sight of the son, the father runs to him. This tells us that the father was always looking for him, always hoping that someday he would return. When he does return, the joy is palpable!

In his book The Return of the Prodigal Son: A Story of Homecoming, Nouwen reflects on this parable while meditating on a painting by the Dutch artist Rembrandt van Rijn. Over the course of his meditations, Nouwen challenges the reader to try and identify with all three of the characters in the parable. He recognizes that for many, the youngest son is the easiest to identify with, since we can easily see ourselves as sinners in need of God's mercy. However, he also states that if we are honest with ourselves, there are times in our lives that we are more like the older son: times when we judge others and put them down because of their actions. In those moments, our pride blocks our ability to receive the father's love and mercy that we so desperately long for. It is this experience of receiving the mercy and love of the father that shapes how we are called to respond.

Nouwen notes at the end of his book that most people do not want to identify with the father in this parable. In a way, this makes sense: if the father is supposed to be God, how could we possibly identify with him? It is to this question that Nouwen speaks when he reminds us that we are called to be merciful, just as the father is merciful. Once we have received the gift of the father's mercy, we are called to share that gift with others, and to help lead them to have the same experience of God's great mercy and love. Our lives, then, become a journey towards becoming more and more merciful, just as the father is merciful to us.

If you have not already done so, I encourage you to receive God's mercy during this Lenten season. We have one final penance service this Thursday at Assumption. You can also join us for one of our regularly scheduled Confession times. May God's mercy be with you as we approach the celebration of the Lord's passion, death, and resurrection.

Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

You are personally invited to consider attending a listening session and inviting others to share your story of journeying with the Church and to learn from the diversity of experiences of others. This listening process will provide insights for our family of parishes. It will stimulate reflection on the different ways our family of parishes can be intentional about deepening communion, expanding participation and focusing on mission. Below are listening sessions you can attend. Choose one and register today.

- Monday, March 28th at St. Angela from 7-9pm
- Sunday, April 3rd at Holy Name of Mary from 4-6pm
- Saturday, April 9th at St. Alphonsus from 1-3pm

If you are unable to attend one of the above sessions, there will be a Zoom Session on Saturday, April 2nd from 9-11am
Listening Session registration information can be found on our website www.windsorheritageparishes.ca/synod

The SHARE LENT collection will be on Sunday April 3rd. There is a special collection envelope for SHARE LENT in the sets of boxed envelopes. If you do not have a SHARE LENT envelope we will provide envelopes at the entrance of the Church.
