Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 10, 2013

Josuah 5:9-12; Ps. 33; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; Luke 15:1-32

We are all God's prodigal children who have wandered far from our Father's home. How our redeemer longs to welcome us home, where we can experience for ourselves God's great goodness. The Old Testament reading tells of the first celebration of the Passover feast in the promised land. The gospel parable of the forgiving father teaches us about the immeasurable tenderness of God. When the wayward son returns, his father runs out to meet him, calling for a celebration even before the son has finished his act of contrition.

No longer is he counted as dead or lost! The elder brother, displeased at his father's forgiving love, is like the self-righteous person who is outraged that God's welcome is extended to every sinner who repents. Like the wayward son, we have been reconciled with God through Christ. The new creation St. Paul speaks of is all God's work; Jesus became like us in order that we might become like him.

PARISH NEWS

All parishioners are invited to a parish meeting on Palm Sunday, March 24 at 4pm in the Church. The focus of this gathering will be to outline the strategy for the next phase of our Campaign, to introduce the newly hired facilitators who will help the parish move forward on this project and allow the parishioners to ask any questions and seek clarifications. It is urgent that all the parishioners attend this meeting.
