Fifth Sunday of Lent
March 17, 2013

Isaiah 43:16-21; Ps. 125; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11

The Lenten use of the story of the woman taken in adultery emphasizes that before God we are all sinners; the one who condemns incurs the greater sin. Jesus' death makes available to all the forgiveness and peace which he gives to this sinful woman. She alone and not her partner, has been brought by Jesus' enemies for a possible horrible death by stoning. They hope to trap this popular teacher: either he must ignore the mosaic law or discredit his own merciful teaching. As she stands in shame, Jesus takes attention away from her by writing in the sand. We see her renewed sense of self-worth as her shamed accusers leave the scene. Jesus respects her human dignity; he refuses to condemn as he tells her not to sin again.

The first reading encourages us to forget our sinful past as God does. What greater reason do we need for praise? Since God has forgiven us, we should seek to be united with the Lord. To be holy is to pattern ourselves after Jesus' life and death; then we will know him and be found in him.

PARISH NEWS

All parishioners are invited to a parish meeting on Palm Sunday, March 24 at 4pm in the Church. The focus of this gathering will be to outline the strategy for the next phase of our Campaign, to introduce the newly hired facilitators who will help the parish move forward on this project and allow the parishioners to ask any questions and seek clarifications. It is urgent that all the parishioners attend this meeting.

The Easter Season begins April 1, 2013. As the Paschal Candle stands in a place of prominence, we begin the 50 days of Easter journeying to Pentecost. To help you continue with your daily pray regime, reflection and spiritual renewal during the Holy Season of Easter we invite you to purchase a "Little White Book" to spend some quiet time with the Lord "6 minutes a day."

The books will be available for purchase after all the Masses on March 16th and 17th and again on April 6th and 7th.

The cost is only $2.00 and the proceeds go to the Restoration Fund. Thank you for your continued support!

The Mission Club will be holding a meeting on Wednesday March 20, 2013 at 10:00am.
