THIRD SUNDAY OF THE LENTEN JOURNEY

Exodus 17:3-7; Ps. 94; Romans 5:1-8; John 4:5-42

“The Samaritan woman of today’s gospel didn’t fit any of the social standards of the day. Mary of Bethany simply didn’t accept any of their role definitions either. Mary Magdalen was indeed a bold and brazen woman. And they made no bones—any of them—about their commitment to Jesus. No bones at all about their call or their intention—in fact, their compulsion—to carry on his will and his wonderful presence in their lives. “

—Sr. Joan Chittister

FRIDAY, MARCH 28 AND APRIL 4

STATIONS OF THE CROSS AND BENEDICTION AT 7 PM

A LENTEN THOUGHT

Father Walter Burghardt, a venerable Jesuit priest, wrote this reflection on his Fiftieth Anniversary of Ordination.

“In the course of a half century I have seen more Catholic corruption than you have read of; I have tasted it; I have been reasonably corrupt myself, and yet I joy in this Church of ours — this living, pulsing, sinning People of God. I love it with crucifying passion. Why?

For all of the Catholic sins — hate, racism, etc. — I still experience here a great community of love. For all its institutional idiocy, I find here a tradition of reason. For all the individualistic experiences, I breathe here an air of freedom. For all the false fear of sexuality, I discover here the redemption of my body. In an age so inhumane, I touch here the tears of compassion. In a world so grim and humorless, I share here rich joy and earthly laughter. In the midst of death, I hear here an incomparable stress on life. For all the apparent absence of God, I sense here the real, living loving presence of Jesus the Christ, the God-Man.” !

Pope Francis has said: “Do not be afraid to ask God’s forgiveness! He never tires of forgiving us, like a father who loves us.”

This year, once again, we will provide the opportunity for all Catholics to ask for God’s forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation.

On Wednesday, April 9 the sacrament of penance (confession) will be celebrated throughout the entire day by every priest in every parish in the diocese.

Confession Times will be from 9am to 5pm and 6pm to 8pm. in Rosary Chapel.

RAFFLE

This is the last weekend for the raffle ticket sale.
