Passion (Palm) Sunday
March 24, 2013

Isaiah 50:4-7; Ps. 21; Philippians 2:6-11; Luke 22:14—23:56
Today's liturgy shows us the height and depth of Jesus' life, from the triumphal entry into Jerusalem to his death on a cross a short time later. Only Paul's letter alludes to the victory of Easter and Christ's equality with God; Holy Week holds up to our contemplation the perfect obedience of this man who will die an abject death before being exalted as Lord of all creation. His good works are repaid with ill, much as Isaiah's servant song shows the ministry of God's disciples interrupted by persecution. Both the first reading and the psalm describe prophetically Jesus' sufferings, and both conclude with an expression of enduring trust in God's help. According to Matthew and Mark, Jesus prayed this psalm as he hung on the cross. Its cry expresses abandonment, but its ending asserts resolve to continue the work of praise in the assembled community. Every eucharist associates us with Christ as he offers his sacrifice in our midst and continues his perfect praise of the Father.
