Third Sunday of Lent
March 3, 2013

Ex. 3:1-15; Ps. 102' 1 Cor. 10:1-12; Lk. 13:1-9

How tempting it is to speculate about other people's relationships to God and to forget our own. When two catastrophes were reported to Jesus, he made them the occasion for calling his listeners once again to repent. Jesus refused to conclude that disasters are God's judgement against the victims. Rather, misfortunes provoke us to reform our own lives. Now is the time for decision; thanks to God's patience, we still have time to ask forgiveness. In the parable of the fig tree, which is a call to reform an unproductive life, God postpones carrying out the judgment already made until the gardener, like Christ, makes one more attempt. But we must not presume on God's patience indefinitely. Lent's invitation to reform must be taken seriously. The Holy One is as ready to save us his children now, as when he revealed his name to Moses on Mount Horeb. St. Paul warns about unfaithfulness; we who are members of Christ through baptism and who are nourished with the spiritual food of the Eucharist must not presume on God's mercy.
