FIRST SUNDAY OF THE LENTEN JOURNEY

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7; Ps. 50; Rom. 5:12-19; Matt. 4:1-11

“The whole Christian community is always assembled in greater numbers on Sundays and so on the first Sunday of Lent we have a sort of solemnized opening of the season of penance and fasting....

The gospel gives us the keynote: we have there the example of Christ fasting forty days and his subsequent resistance to the temptations toward inordinate appetite of sense, pride of life, and lust for possessions—the three great enemies of human salvation.”

—Virgil Michel

TEMPTATION

Every conquered temptation represents a new fund of moral energy. Every trial endured and weathered in the right spirit makes a soul nobler and stronger than it was before.

—William Butler Yeats

HAPPINESS

Happiness is a mystery, like religion, and should never be rationalized.

—G. K. Chesterton

PRAYER

The value of persistent prayer is not that God will hear us, but that we will finally hear God.

—William McGill
