May 31, 2015 Most Holy Trinity Sunday

The Staff and Parish would like to offer their heartfelt thanks to Fr. Don McLeod for his presence and ministry among us over the last several months.

May God continue to bless you and the work you do.

It is such a pleasure to write this as your new pastor. Even though the appointment became effective officially on May 1, it is only now that I will arrive for more than a couple of days at a time. I congratulate and promise my prayer to those who are receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. I still remember my confirmation, at the hands of Bishop Markovsky at Our Lady of the Assumption Parish in Houston, Texas. I hope that you who are confirmed this weekend will also remember this day for many years to come, and that you remain witnesses to the justice and mercy that Jesus taught his followers. And this weekend the universal Church celebrates the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. Since my first pastorate was at Most Holy Trinity Church in Angleton, Texas, it is so fitting that I arrive here this weekend. Some of the earliest theologians in the Christian Church described the Trinity as an eternal dance between the Father and the Son, a dance that brought forth life, life as the Holy Spirit. And so we dance. Fr. Don has been “dancing” with you since this past fall, and has had the unenviable task of closing the historical Assumption church building and helping you get started at the McEwan campus. And now he is handing me off to you. We wish him well, and offer our prayer and thank. Fr. Don, may the peace and blessing of the people of God of Assumption accompany you as you head back to St. Joseph's College in Edmonton. And may God bless each of us with the grace that will come from our new journey together into the future.

Fr. Maurice

Handicap Accessible

TAIZÉ STYLE PRAYER

Corpus Christi Church
1400 Cabana Road West
Sunday, May 31, 2015
at 7:00pm

This prayer is a blend of simple yet beautiful melodies with a few meditative refrains repeated many times, to which are joined brief words of scripture and prayer, and silence. It is an invitation to enter into this experience, to allow it to lead you gently into your own centre as a sacred place where your worth is affirmed, and where you are connected with others and with the silent Mystery.

All are welcome!

HOUR OF POWER
