FIFTH SUNDAY OF THE EASTER SEASON

MAY 6TH, 2012

Acts 9:26-31, 17-19; 1 John 3:18-24; John 15:4-5

“And this is God’s commandment, that we should believe in the name of his son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever obeys his commandments abides in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the spirit that he has given us”.

By believing in Jesus Christ and loving one another, we behave in a way worthy of our call to communion with God. These two parts of God’s one ‘commandment’ must be fulfilled in a way that each authenticates the other. Our actions must support our words. This is one case in which it’s definitely not just the thought that counts.

We want our lives to be fruitful and authentic. We want to lead others to God, not drive them away. How fortunate for us, then, that we have Jesus giving us life from within, a divine vinegrower working lovingly to bring the very best out of each one of us, and a Spirit testifying to the abiding divine presence in our midst. If we only ask!

“Only Christ gives meaning to the whole of our life...Christianity is not an intellectual system, a packet of dogmas, a moralism. Christianity is rather an encounter, a love story; it is an event. If we know him, not only in words, but if we are struck by his beauty, then we will truly know him, and know him not only because we have heard others speak about him. Then we will have found the beauty of Truth, of the Truth that redeems.”

—Pope Benedict XVI
