OCTOBER 23, 2022 — 30th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME – C
30a DOMENICA del TEMPO ORDINARIO—C — 23 OTTOBRE, 2022

From the Administrator's Desk...

In our Gospel Readings over the past few weeks, we have been focusing a lot on prayer. This Sunday, that theme continues. This time, however, instead of teaching about prayer, Jesus uses a parable to teach us about the dangers of allowing self-righteousness and pride to creep into our prayers.

To understand this lesson, we need to look carefully at the words that the pharisee and the tax collector use in their prayers. The pharisee seemingly starts off ok, when he says "God, I thank you..." but after that, things quickly go astray. He is not thanking God for blessings, or for what God has done for him: Rather, he is telling God all the ways that he is great, because of what he has done. "I fast twice a week... I give a tenth of all my income..." One could imagine that the list could go on and on. By praying in this way, the Pharisee is essentially telling God that he doesn't need Him: He has it all figured out on his own. In doing so, the pride and self-righteousness of the pharisee are on full display. If someone were to ask him what God had done for him, the Pharisee would likely have a difficult time answering that question.

The tax collector, on the other hand, might be able to more easily answer the question of what God has done for him. In his prayer, he acknowledges that he has sinned, and asks God for mercy. Jesus tells us that it is this man, the sinner, who is justified in his prayer, because he recognizes his need for God. He knows that he can do nothing without God's help, and that God ultimately is the one who gives him the grace to turn from his sinfulness, and seek to follow God more faithfully.

This parable is an important reminder to us of the importance of humility in our prayer life. If we want to be aware of God's grace in our lives, and properly recognize everything that God does for us, we need to approach him with an attitude which recognizes that He is our creator, and we are his children, whom he loves deeply. When we approach God in this way, it becomes far easier to allow him into our lives, and to allow his grace to guide our actions.

This reality is yet another reminder that our prayer does not change God, it changes us! As you spend time in prayer this week, I invite you to focus on standing humbly before God, acknowledging your need for his grace. May you find that grace present in your life in whatever way you need it.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

The totally awesome Trunk or Treat Family of Parishes Event is next weekend at the Assumption Parish Parking lot (rear area). Saturday, October 29, 2022 from 1 pm to 3 pm.

This is an "outdoor" event where participants bring "treats" to offer to the children - the children can come as "they are" or dress up and collect from "trunk to trunk to trunk". There will be a "photo" booth, music, and plenty of "treats"! Pets are allowed (on leashes) "dressed or as they are!" Come out for some smiles and family fun!

Today, we are observing World Mission Sunday. Each year at this time, we are called to focus our attention on the great needs of the Church in the Developing World.

This year's scriptural theme, "We cannot but speak about what we have, seen and heard"(Acts 4:20) reminds all baptized Catholics of their responsibility to share in the missionary work of the universal Church.

Donation envelopes can be found at the church entrance. You can also write "World Mission Sunday" on a blank envelope with your name.

Thank you for your support in our annual Thanksgiving Appeal. There is still time to support it by putting an envelope in the collection basket marked "Thanksgiving Appeal" or by visiting our website.

Our yearly Memorial Masses for our Parishioners who have passed away in the past year will be held as follows:

- St. Alphonsus: Friday, November 4, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.
- Assumption: Tuesday, November 8, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.
- St. Angela Merici: Friday, November 11, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.

"At Baptism a candle is lit that represents the flame of faith, which is to be kept burning throughout the life of the baptized." Last Sunday marked a "passing" of the Baptismal "flame" through a prayer ritual that invited the Confirmation parents/caregivers to "pass" the light that they have carried over the years - for - their children - to - their children to carry forward. Please keep these families and our candidates in your prayers as they journey closer to the heart of Jesus in the Sacrament of Confirmation. Holy Spirit, Come! Questions? Contact Lynne Tibor - 519 253-2493 x227.

For all parishioners

Congratulations to Cameron Solecki and Lisa Bezaire on their marriage. May they be blessed with humble service, persistent prayer, and generous giving of self to others.

This weekend, Amelia Chapman Lee and Annie Shugg were welcomed as daughters of God through baptism.

May they grow into true appreciation for the gifts of the sacrament in their lives.
