Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

LOVE SHOWN IN ACTION

Do you receive the word of God with joy as the Thessalonians did? Their faith showed in their actions. They became models for other believers.

The first reading tells us to put our faith into action. This passage is part of a long list of ordinances God commanded the Israelites to observe. God will judge us by how we treat our neighbors. God will hear the cries of any whom we neglect or mistreat and will come to their defense.

In today's Gospel the Pharisees put the question of God's law to Jesus. "Which commandment of the law is the greatest?" (Matthew 22:36) How could he possibly choose from all the detailed commandments the Jews observed? He was sure to offend somebody by his answer! Of course, Jesus went right to the heart of the matter. Love is the greatest commandment—love of God and love of neighbor. Everything else is based on this.

Many members of our community turned out last Saturday at the McEwan Campus to get our new Sunday home ready for occupancy in three weeks' time.

To all who came out: please accept this expression of my gratitude for the generous gifts of your time and your hard work -- they are appreciated more than words can adequately express!

Sixteen groups have begun to meet in our Why Catholic program. There is a group meeting on every day of the week. We would ask all parishioners to keep all the participants in their prayers for the next six weeks. We ask you to commit to frequently pray the following prayer for our Why Catholic participants and for all parishioners.

A Disciple's Prayer:

Loving God and Father, help us to be people of prayer, committed to the person and message of Jesus your Son.
 Help us to grasp the integrity and beauty of the truths of our faith and the transforming power of your grace.
 Nourish and strengthen us as people of faith, disciples of Jesus, committed to the mission of the church and eager to share the gospel without restraint.
 Let our hearts burn within us as we catch glimpses of your heart in Jesus, for through him, we know your loving plan for us.
 We ask this through Jesus the Christ who lives with you and the Holy Spirit in one loving Trinity. Amen.
