Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

IN THE VINEYARD

As usual, today's first and third scripture readings are obviously related, with the second continuing one of Paul's Letters—these days, the Letter to the Philippians. The vineyard stories from Isaiah and Matthew both talk about evildoers coming to a bad end. In Isaiah, it's the vineyard itself that produces "wild grapes" instead of the crop the owner dreamed of and worked for. So it will be "trampled" and "overgrown with thorns." In Matthew, those to whom the owner leased the vineyard destroy the dream. So the owner "will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants" (Matthew 21:41). Yes, if we reject divine love we come to a bad end. And with all this talk of the unfaithful being trampled and thrown out, it's consoling to hear Paul's message to the Philippians, who were by no means perfect. "Have no anxiety at all," Paul said. "Then the God of peace will be with you" (Philippians 4:6, 9).

TODAY'S READINGS

Gospel — The kingdom of God will be given to those who will produce its fruit (Matthew 21:33-43).

Why Catholic? is a dynamic small-group, faith sharing experience at Our Lady of the Assumption Parish.*

Our current theme, "PRAY," runs for six weeks from the week of October 19th through the week of November 29th 2014.

Talk about God

Society and the pressures of today offer little opportunity for us to stop and reflect on our spiritual life. Small Christian Communities give us the time, the space, and the direction to reflect on our relationship with God and others and become more aware of the times when God touched our lives, challenged us or spoke to us.

Watch for more announcements about Why Catholic? and when asked to join, say "Yes!"
