TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

September 16, 2012

Isaiah 50:5-9; Psalm 114; James 2:14-18; Mark 8:27-35

To be true to his task as the Christ (Messiah, God's anointed one), Jesus must suffer. Christians too must take up their cross, a fearful reality, and follow their Lord. These difficult words are spoken as Jesus' ministry has taken him far from Jerusalem. From now on he will make his way to the place of his death with firm resolve. But Peter, first to recognize Jesus as the longed-for messiah, objects, and is sharply rebuked for the part of Satan by tempting Jesus to depart from God's will. There can be no compromise: to save our life we must carry our cross. Jesus had read of his destiny in the scriptures and accepted the Father's will for his life. In the first reading we see the suffering servant of Old Testament prophecy. This innocent victim and peaceable non-resister turns the other cheek. His body is bruised and his spirit is unflinching, for God is at his side. We Christians should read the letter of James with special care. It is not enough to profess our faith with Peter; the proof lies in renouncing self and loving our neighbor with deeds of charity.

Attention All Parents:

The Assumption Parish Community Association is once again offering their Monday evening catechism program in the basement of Holy Name of Mary Church. Registration for the J.K.-High school will take place on Monday Sept. 17th with classes beginning on Monday Sept. 24th. The program runs from 6-8 pm with dinner included. Cost of the program is $30/child or $50 family. Anyone planning on celebrating sacraments (First Communion/ Confirmation) at Assumption Parish must register for the catechism classes. Any questions please call the rectory.

As September arrives, let us all make a conscious effort to welcome the new parishioners into our community – students and non-students alike – and let us move forward, not as different groups under one banner, but as a community rich in faith and diversity.

Campus Ministry Programming for Students

Just about every day of every week, Campus Ministry brings students together from across campus.
