⇒ TWENTY-SIX SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

⇒ September 30, 2012

Numbers 11:25-25-29;
Psalm 18;
James 5:1-6;
Mark 9:38-48

The Church cannot claim to have exclusive rights on Jesus Christ. In the gospel today, Jesus rebukes his disciples for intolerance. God's work will not be limited to exclusive circles and established channels. Others too are graced; do we try to limit their effectiveness and monopolize the work of Christ? We have no reason to be jealous, for God will reward anyone who aids Jesus' followers. As there must be no power struggles, so we must not scandalize the uninstructed. In everything we do, the work of Christ should take precedence over our personal views and position. Eternal life with Christ is of such great value that we must avoid sin, or scandal at any cost. Are we as large-hearted as Moses, who in the first reading rebukes those envious of God's gifts, and wishes that all were graced with God's Spirit? The letter of James deals with another kind of hoarding: overconsumption. Human exploitation and injustice by the wealthy of this world cry out to the Just One, who will render judgment on the last day.

Host Families Needed

The University of Windsor is looking for families to host international students for the Thanksgiving Holidays. It is a wonderful opportunity to help students, new to this country, to learn about our culture and for each of us to be reminded about what we can be grateful for. You do not need to provide them with a place to stay since most live on campus; only to include them in your celebrations. All those interested can go to the parish website and click on the link under "Resources" or you can simply contact Fr. Chris.
