Vocation View

"On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary His mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." God asks us to give our lives. What treasures have been given to you to share with others in Christ's Name? If you feel God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Bishop Wayne Lobsinger, Director of Vocations and priestly Formation, Diocese of Hamilton (905-528-7988).

Thank You from Fr. John, Fr. Gregory and the Parish Staff

Thank you to all the parishioners for your generosity over the Christmas holidays, and thanks to everyone for the gifts that were dropped off at the rectory and the parish office over the holiday season. We sincerely appreciate the cards, gifts, prayers, and well wishes. Thanks to Linda Herlihey and all the musicians for all their hard work in preparing and providing music for the liturgies, especially at Christmas, and throughout the year. Thanks to Deacon Brian Dunn for his ongoing ministry in our parish and service at Mass. Thanks to Al & Cindy MacIntosh for their work in decorating the church each week and all the extras for Christmas. Thanks to all the ministry leaders for their work in scheduling and coordinating the various parish ministries throughout the year. Thanks to all the Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion who helped at the Masses this year. We also extend a very big and sincere thank you to the Ushers and Greeters who were faithfully here at each Mass to ensure that we could be open safely with the pandemic restrictions. We pray that the celebration of our Lord's Birth may lead us all ever deeper in the Mystery of God's love, and that 2022 may be filled with an abundance of the Lord's blessings for us all!

Did you know?

This week, we are beginning a bulletin series called "Did you know?" where we will share things about our faith with our parishioners. This is meant to be a way to explain why we do things and the great beauty of our faith when it is understood. We might not have it published every week, depending on space available in the bulletin, but we will try and have it published fairly consistently.

This week, we look at the meaning of the Entrance Procession at Mass. The Entrance Procession symbolizes the movement of the Church from the old world to the new. For an hour, we leave the world behind and approach the sacrifice of the New Covenant. Even though just the priest and a few other ministers are in the Procession, the congregation can participate by mentally leaving behind all that is "un-holy" and preparing for the graces which flow from the Sacrament. We can spiritually "approach the altar" with the priest and offer up our personal sacrifices in union with the Sacrifice of the Mass. The spiritual meaning of the Entrance Procession, as leaving everything behind as we approach the altar, is a good argument that Mass begins with the Entrance Procession.

The Entrance Chant (or hymn) begins during the Entrance Procession. "Its purpose is to open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical time or festivity, and accompany the procession of the Priest and ministers. This chant is sung alternately by the choir and the people or similarly by a cantor and the people, or entirely by the people, or by the choir alone. If there is no singing at the Entrance, the antiphon given in the Missal is recited either by the faithful, or by some of them, or by a reader; otherwise, it is recited by the Priest himself, who may even adapt it as an introductory explanation." (General Instruction of the Roman Missal 47-48). The Antiphons, when they are recited as on weekdays, are taken from scripture, and are a reminder of the ubiquity of the Word of God within the Liturgy.

2022 Offering Envelopes

2022 Offering Envelopes are now available in the Foyer. If you have used envelopes this past year, there will be a box for you in 2022. Please do not use envelopes from previous years or envelopes from other Parishes. This will result in posting errors to your account. For parishioners who do not have envelopes and would like to begin using them, you will be issued a new box.

Church Bulletin Advertising

Liturgical Publications will be setting up the advertisements for our church bulletin. The advertising will begin in February 2022 and supports the bulletin service. Please support the bulletin and advertise your product or service. Call Liturgical Publications at 1-800-268-2637.

Marriage Support

Is your marriage experience more trouble than joy, feeling stagnant or disconnected and/or causing you worries? The solution is Retrouvaille – a program for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship. Retrouvaille has one purpose: to help couples restore their marriage and rebuild a loving relationship. This is a practical program, where sharing is not required except between the couple themselves, designed to improve communication, build stronger marriages, and help couples reconnect. It also works well for couples who may be considering separation or divorce. The next Retrouvaille weekend begins March 13, 2022. For more information call 905-664-5212 or email teamrecine@gmail.com.

Halton Alive

Halton Alive would like to thank all St. Paul the Apostle parishioners for the generous respect Life Sunday collection of $1,170.00 that you donated to them. Your contribution will be used to further life-affirming education here in Halton parishes, schools, and communities.
