Society of
St. Vincent de Paul

May 1st and May 2nd Bundle Up Collection

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be collecting gently used clothing and household linens to support the needy and our residential programs, on the weekend of May 1 and 2. Please bring your donations to the truck in the church parking lot before and after all Masses that weekend; please tie all bags.

Christ's resurrection fills our hearts with wonder, love and joy. There is renewal, there is hope. Darkness becomes light and night gives way to the day. All of us have been called to be witnesses to this hope. This Easter season, please consider a donation to ShareLife and support the work our agencies do. Your gift can give renewed meaning and value to the lives of the desolate, the marginalized and the poor in our society. By giving to ShareLife, you are bringing the victory of the resurrection in the lives and hearts of those who are in need. May we see the face of the risen Christ in every person our ShareLife agencies serve.

DIVINE MERCY
SUNDAY
Sunday April 11, 2010

The Resurrection of Jesus on Easter is our joy – Jesus is the Merciful One who shows mercy to us in our weakness. We wish to join Him one day in the joy of heaven. We need His mercy to bring us to that unending happiness.

When Jesus spoke to St. Faustina, He asked that we make the Sunday following Easter a day to rejoice in God's great mercy on each one of us. Pope John Paul II gave this day the special title Mercy Sunday. Let us fill the Church on this afternoon of unusual graces for ourselves, our families and friends. The Novena of Divine Mercy begins with Our Good Friday evening devotions and concludes on Easter Saturday. Following the 12:15 Mass we will have

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
Private and congregational prayers
Homily on 'Meaning of Mercy'
Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Benediction

REFLECTIONS
DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

"Today the Lord shows us his glorious wounds and his heart, an inexhaustible source of light and truth, of love and forgiveness.

The Heart of Christ! His "Sacred Heart" has given men everything: redemption, salvation, sanctification. St Faustina Kowalska saw coming from this Heart that was overflowing with generous love, two rays of light which illuminated the world. "The two rays", according to what Jesus himself told her, "represent the blood and the water" (Diary, p. 132). The blood recalls the sacrifice of Golgotha and the mystery of the Eucharist; the water, according to the rich symbolism of the Evangelist John, makes us think of Baptism and the Gift of the Holy Spirit (cf. Jn 3: 5; 4: 14).

Through the mystery of this wounded heart, the restorative tide of God's merciful love continues to spread over the men and women of our time. Here alone can those who long for true and lasting happiness find its secret.

"Jesus, I trust in you". This prayer, dear to so many of the devout, clearly expresses the attitude with which we too would like to abandon ourselves trustfully in your hands, O Lord, our only Saviour.

You are burning with the desire to be loved and those in tune with the sentiments of your heart learn how to build the new civilization of love. A simple act of abandonment is enough to overcome the barriers of darkness and sorrow, of doubt and desperation. The rays of your divine mercy restore hope, in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin.

Mary, Mother of Mercy, help us always to have this trust in your Son, our Redeemer. Help us too, St Faustina, whom we remember today with special affection. Fixing our weak gaze on the divine Saviour's face, we would like to repeat with you: "Jesus, I trust in you". Now and for ever. Amen. "

HOMILY OF JOHN PAUL II

Sunday, 22 April 2001

Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

Be Merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

Completely trust. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.
