honour married couples while saluting the faithfulness,
sacrifice and joy that come with the marriage covenant.
For more information and resources for married couples or couples looking to get married in the Catholic Church, please visit www.archtoronto.org/marriage.

25th, 40th, 50th or 60 + wedding anniversary anytime during 2014, Cardinal Collins is also inviting such couples to join him for a special Mass followed by a reception to

On Sunday, February 2 at 3 p.m. at St. Paul's Basilica (83 Power Street, Toronto), there will be a special Mass in celebration of the vocation and witness of these special men and women religious who are such a vital and important part of the life and ministry of the Church in our Archdiocese. The Presentation of the Lord Sunday, February 2, 2024

We celebrate the Presentation of the Lord, the day that Mary and Joseph, in accordance with Jewish Law, presented Jesus at the Temple. This day, forty days after the birth of Christ, ends the season of the Nativity. It also marks the ritual Purification of Mary, again in accordance with the Law of that time. The Presentation of Jesus is the fourth Joyful Mystery of the Holy Rosary. As recorded by Luke: When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every first born male is to be consecrated to the Lord"), and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons"

RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS TO EDUCATE THEIR CHILDREN Catechism of the Catholic Church #2224-2226

Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well suited for education in the virtues. This requires an apprenticeship in self-denial, sound judgment, and self-mastery - the preconditions of all true freedom. Parents should teach their children to subordinate the "material and instinctual dimensions to interior and spiritual ones" (CA 36(2)). Parents have a grave responsibility to give good example to their children. By knowing how to acknowledge their own failings to their children, parents will be better able to guide and correct them...

Education in the faith by the parents should begin in the child's earliest years. This already happens when family members help one another to grow in faith by the witness of a Christian life in keeping with the Gospel. Family catechesis precedes, accompanies, and enriches other forms of instruction in the faith. Parents have the mission of teaching their children to pray and to discover their vocation as children of God (cf. LG 11). The parish is the Eucharistic community and the heart of the liturgical life of Christian families; it is a privileged place for the catechesis of children and parents...

World Day for Consecrated Life Sunday, February 2, 2014

Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.
