Blessed Trinity Chinese Outreach

Part I: Introduction to the Catholic faith and the Bible; suitable for non-Catholics who would like to know more about our faith. A new class will start whenever there is a sufficient number of enquirers.

Part II: An in-depth exploration of the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Bible. This year-round lectionary-based program is suitable for non-Catholics preparing for Baptism, as well as Catholics who would like to deepen their understanding of our faith. Parishioners are welcome to drop-in any Sunday. No classes on long weekends.

Both programs will be conducted in Cantonese and in Mandarin on Sundays at 12 noon. A program, conducted in English, for children of participants of the Chinese Outreach Program runs at the same time. St. Joseph Husband of Mary The Gentle Joseph "Out of the silence, deep and holy, the gentle Joseph comes; and every movement, every step, even his carriage, speaks of courage, understanding and of love. He is not old, but young and vital, tall, sparse, with hair as soft as silk and dark as night. His eyes are blue, reflecting a glory that is rarely seen, for it has been given to him to father the Son of God without fathering, the only man to whom the Father would entrust His Son.

The bride, the church, knows him well. It is at Joseph's feet that nightly she lays her burdens, for who better than he, who cradled in his arms the flesh of God, to deal with his Mystical Body? And her children bring to him thousands of broken dreams, sorrows, and hearts that are wounded. Who better than the man who believed the impossible, the craftsman of silence and faith, to answer the prayers of children who walk in darkness alone?

Yet, notwithstanding his glory, his beauty, his light, he is still Joseph the unknown; for silent and humble, he always stands on the side, letting the mother and child go ahead of him, for they are his only delight.

St. Joseph, spouse of the Virgin Mary and patron of the bride of Christ, we need you! How timely your coming, O Joseph, foster father of God and of us."
