AFFECTIVE PRAYER THROUGHOUT THE DAY

“Once prayer has become affective – that is, mainly composed of acts as distinct from reflections – it can and should be often renewed throughout the day by frequent aspirations, which should always be short, often original, and generally in our own words. They may even be quite wordless; a smile, a look, a sigh, a movement of the heart that we ourselves do not even perceive, can speak volumes to such an intimate Friend as Jesus.

If this habit be developed, prayer may be maintained throughout our most absorbing occupations, especially if our prayer arises out of the work in hand, in a request for help for patience in our difficulties, in a word of praise for some particular disposition of God's providence, or if, like St. Philip Neri, one thanks God that things are not going ‘my way’! The practice of greeting all manifestations of God's will – especially when they are painful – with a smile, even though it be only an interior one, is prayer of great value, and one that touches the Heart of God in a very special way.”

SERRA PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

“O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, Saint Joseph her spouse, Blessed Junipero Serra, and all the saints, an increase of labourers for Your Church, fellow labourers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.
