The Fellowship of St. Joseph

The Association of Hebrew Catholics (Fellowship of St. Joseph) presents the Salt and Light documentary,

“A Hand of Peace”

This informative and enlightening film outlines the illustrious work and saving efforts of Blessed Pope Pius XII on behalf of Italy's Jews during the Second World War. Replete with interviews from Jewish rabbis and professors, as well as from those promoting his Canonization, this film includes many photographs and film clips. Documented evidence proves that the Pope laboured tirelessly and at great sacrifice in his complete support of the Jewish people. This is not to be missed. – Tuesday, June 19th at 7:00 pm in the parish hall.

Our frozen pans of Chili for the Good Shepherd Refuge are due in the parish hall by next Sunday. We thank all our loyal chili cooks, and invite anyone who is willing to help us feed the hungry to pick up a pan and recipe from the parish office.

If you would like to join our efforts and/or receive more information about this program, please contact the office or Mary Ellen Lawless at 416-223-4969. Good Shepherd Refuge is a hostel administered by Little Brothers of the Good Shepherd, a Catholic Order of religious men. They provide basic necessities for the poor, such as food, shelter and clothing.

Happy Father's day

Reflections by Catherine Doherty

A father is a man who has begotten children. He has a family he must look after. He must provide for the necessities of food, shelter, clothing, education and medical care. He must be present to his family and give them all his love, care and attention. A father is the head of a community of love. Together with his wife he forms an atmosphere of love conducive not only to healthy human growth but to spiritual growth as well. By example, a father preaches his loudest sermons and teaches his greatest lessons. It is from his own tender, responsible actions that his children learn the heart and the art of loving. Though loving his own family above all others, a father is also aware of the needs of his neighbours as well. In fact, according to his state life and concrete situation, a father is concerned with the needs of the whole world. In all cases, however, a truly loving father is willing to submit his own needs to those of others. This is the ideal we the laity have of fathers.

Love and the Sacred Heart

"June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. For human beings the heart has always been a symbol of love. St. John the Apostle put his head on the Lord's breast at the Last Supper and heard the heartbeats of God! Imagine how that would transform us, if we understood, even dimly, that each beat was a love letter to us!

So let us enter the great silence of our own souls. For a split second we are John the beloved; we put our head on his breast and hear, thump, thump, thump. That is not an average heart. No, it is God's and what it spells loud and clear is love for us. Let us pray there humbly, lovingly, plunging into the riches of the sacred Heart. Then we shall know God in a way that no book can teach us. Then we will love him so passionately, so tremendously, so utterly and completely, that it will become simple for us to be the kind of Christians we must be. We will not have to say very much. We will only have to walk upright, crying the Gospel with our lives, reflecting our lover in our faces. The world needs the Sacred Heart today. The world needs human hearts united to the Sacred Heart. Without love the world is very dark. Let us arise and resurrect the world by bringing love to it – and it to God."

"Grace in Every Season"..... Catherine Doherty

Prayer to the Precious Blood

O Precious Blood of Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I ardently desire to consecrate myself and all the days of my life to Your love and worship. I place myself and my loved ones in a special manner under Your powerful protection, begging that Your benediction may ever rest upon us. O Most Precious Blood, be our light in darkness, our strength in temptation, our consolation in sorrow, our passport to heaven, and the eternal object of our praise and love. Amen
