Saturday Classes

Saturday religious classes will resume in September for students preparing to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion and Confirmation. These classes are for students who attend private schools, schools other than Blessed Trinity, St. Agnes and whose parents are parishioners of Blessed Trinity Church. The registration will take place in September and it is mandatory that a copy of the Child’s Baptism Certificate be presented on registration. If the certificate is not in English, a translation is required. Please see the September bulletin for registration dates.

RCIA – (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Adults interested in Baptism and Reception into the Catholic Church, and those who would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, please call the office at 416-226-0262. Classes begin in September on each Wednesday evening 7:00 – 9:00 pm until Easter.

Our frozen pans of Chili for the Good Shepherd Refuge are due in the parish hall by next Sunday. The deadline is always the last Sunday of the month, after the last Mass (7:00 pm). We thank all our loyal chili cooks, and invite anyone who is willing to help us feed the hungry to pick up a pan and recipe from the parish office. The recipe is easy and delicious and makes enough to fill the Good Shepherd pan, with leftovers for your family’s dinner. It takes so little effort to help us realize Christ’s words: “For I was hungry and you gave me food.” (Mt 25:35).

The Blessed Trinity Young Adults group has concluded for the summer. A special thanks to everyone who was able to participate and help out throughout the year.

SHARELIFE COMMUNITY CHALLENGE

A generous donor has pledged to match all new and increased gifts to the 2010 ShareLife campaign, up to a total of $500,000. If you are a new ShareLife donor, your gift will be doubled. If you have given in the past but didn’t contribute in 2009, your gift will be doubled this year. If you’re a regular ShareLife donor and you increase your gift from the amount contributed last year, the increase of your gift will be matched. Help us to maximize the impact of your gift to ShareLife this year. You have until July 31, 2010 to take advantage of this ShareLife Community Challenge. ShareLife agencies identified more than $800,000 in unfunded needs this year – your gift could help shorten waiting lists, open new shelter beds, and serve more meals for those in need around us. Please consider a gift in support of the ShareLife Community Challenge and help us sustain the good work of our family of agencies. Your generosity will make a bigger difference than ever!

'Don Bosco Among Us – Relic Tour'

St. Benedict Church, Toronto 7:30 am – 11:30 am

A relic of St. John Bosco is coming to Toronto on October 5, 2010 – St. Benedict Church 7:30 am – 11:30 pm. His relic, contained in a life-sized statue, is on a six year international pilgrimage in preparation for his 200th birthday in 2015. This relic tour is a reverse kind of pilgrimage where, instead of people going to the sanctuary to venerate the saint, the saint comes to the people. The relic tour is traveling through 130 countries where the Salesians continue their founder's mission.

St. John Bosco was honoured by Pope John Paul II with the title Friend and Teacher of Youth. In Canada he is also one of the patron saints of Catholic educators. For updates, please visit www.stbenedicts.ca

Happy Father's day

Today is Father's Day, that one day of the year when we take time out to pay tribute to the most important man in our life – our Father. Fathers need to know we care, that we appreciate all they have done or are doing for us and that we'll be there for him, and he needs us to give him the same kind of support that he has so often given to us in life. May God's wondrous love be yours this Father's Day and always.

Prayer of Fathers - Heavenly Father, you have been pleased to let me be called by the name that is yours from all eternity. Help me to be worthy of that name. May I always be for my children a source of life – corporal, intellectual, and spiritual. Enable me to contribute in great part to their physical growth by my work, to their mental advancement by good schooling and to their supernatural life by my prayer and example, so that they may become complete human beings and true children of their heavenly Father.

Let me be conscious that my actions are far more important than my words. May I always give my children a good example in all the situations of life. May I wear my successes modestly, and may my failures find me undaunted; may I be temperate in time of joy and steadfast in time of sorrow. May I remain humble after doing good and contrite after doing evil. Above all, may I scrupulously respect my children's rights as human persons and their freedom to follow a rightly-formed conscience, while at the same time fulfilling my duty to guide them in the way given us by your Son Jesus.

St. Joseph Prayer Book

Be Not Afraid

"The outbreak of the war took me away from my studies and from the university. In that period I also lost my father....At the same time a light was beginning to shine ever more brightly in the back of my mind: the Lord wants me to become a priest. One day I saw this with great clarity; it was like an interior illumination which brought with it the joy and certainty of a new vocation."

These words from Pope John Paul II's memoir Gift and Mystery (p.35) describe an extraordinary reaction to a young life drenched in loss. Though he came of age in one of the most hellish times and locations of the twentieth century, John Paul II was able to greet the Catholic world in 1978 as the newly chosen pope with the words, "Be not afraid!" Almost two decades after taking on the Church's difficult final decades of this century, he was able to title one of his books Crossing the Threshold of Hope. John Paul's balance, sanity, and serenity through the many upheavels of his own life – and the lives of his fellow Christians –are an enduring witness to the abundant grace of God.

...A courage strong enough to be hopeful in desperate circumstances, a powerful and wide-ranging intellect, a confident faith unafraid to engage others in pursuit of the truth in love, a determination to defend the rights of human beings infinitely precious to God their Father – these hallmarks of John Paul II have contributed to his powerful impact and significant achievements as successor to St. Peter.

"Every time Christ exhorts us to have no fear, He has both God and man in mind. He means: Do not be afraid of God ... Do not be afraid to say 'Father!'" (Crossing the Threshold of Hope)"
