Prayer for Canada
Canada Day – Friday, July 1st

Heavenly Father, you are the real foundation of nations, raising them up to serve and care for the people dwelling in their boundaries. I thank you for making me a citizen of this land of freedom and unlimited opportunity – which are the result of its Christian base. Send forth your Spirit to this country and make it a source of wisdom and strength, order and integrity throughout the world.

PLANNING FOR THE FALL SEASON

Registration and first day of religious classes for the community school is Saturday, September 24th.

Registration for the pre-marriage course (which begins in January 2012) is made by calling the office in September.

Each fall we have presentations on Wednesday evenings (the Rite of the Christian Initiation of Adults) for those wishing to study the Catholic faith with a view to possibly joining the Church. We ask that you register during the summer months so that we can more effectively plan for books, etc. You are welcome to call the office or come in to visit with one of the priests if you have any questions. We also have instructions in Chinese (Mandarin & Cantonese).

Pope Benedict XVI on Liturgy

“Liturgy, in truth, is an event by means of which we let ourselves be introduced into the expansive faith and prayer of the church. This is the reason why the early Christians prayed facing east, in the direction of the rising sun, the symbol of the returning Christ. In so doing, they wanted to show that the whole world is on its way toward Christ and that he encompasses the whole world. This connection between heaven and earth is very important. It was no accident that ancient churches were built so that the sun would cast its light into the house of God at a very precise moment. Nowadays we are rediscovering the importance of the interactions between the earth and the rest of the universe, and so it makes perfect sense that we should also relearn to recognize the cosmic character of the liturgy as well as its historical character which means recognizing that someone didn’t just one day invent the liturgy, but that it has been growing organically since the time of Abraham.

These kinds of elements from earliest times are still present in the liturgy...My main reason for making the previous form more available was to preserve the internal continuity of church history. We cannot say: Before everything was wrong, but now everything is right... The issue was internal reconciliation with our own past, the intrinsic continuity of faith and prayer in the Church.”

GRADUATION

We would like to congratulate the students of Blessed Trinity School, St. Agnes School, Brebeuf College

School and St. Joseph’s Morrow Park on their graduations. May God bless and guide them as they continue in their studies.

Holy Father’s Prayer Intentions for July

General Intention: That Christians may contribute to alleviating the material and spiritual suffering of AIDS patients, especially in the poorest countries.

Missionary Intention: For the religious who work in mission territories, that they may be witnesses of the joy of the Gospel and living signs of the love of Christ.

FAREWELL TO FATHER ERIC RODRIGUES

On this, your last weekend with us at Blessed Trinity, may we offer our sincere thanks for your generous ministry among us. You have touched the hearts of all as Jesus did when He came among his people. Your good humour and genuine care for all will be greatly missed. Your deep faith and conviction, so evident in homilies and on other occasions when teaching, have left a lasting impression. Young and old(er) alike have deeply appreciated your priestly goodness. Please remember that you are always welcome to visit your first home as a newly ordained priest – the family of Blessed Trinity. We honour and bless your good parents and express our admiration for the careful way which they prepared the way for your holy vocation.

WELCOME FR. ERIC MAH

We are happy to welcome Fr. Mah as our new Associate Pastor and assure him of our support, prayers and a happy home here, as he begins his new pastoral assignment. We pray that his ministry here will be fruitful and inspiring, and will bring many blessings upon our parish.

New Seminarian – A Seminarian has been assigned to Blessed Trinity for his parish internship year, beginning in September. We look forward to his arrival.

SAINT PAUL AND THE CHURCH

“The Church is the greatest of God’s works. She is “the pillar and the bulwark of the truth” (1 Tim 3:15), mediating to mankind the gift of salvation in Jesus Christ. Do we not have every reason to love her and to thank God that we belong to her! Unfortunately many today tend to have a superficial and critical view of the Church, often seeing her as a merely human institution and deploring the frailties and failures of her members. As people of faith we are increasingly called to grasp the whole depth and “the mystery” of the Church.

In the Church we are able to have communion with the living God and receive again and again His light and His forgiveness. She is the family of God in which our souls find their home and sustenance. The Gospels tell us how Jesus Christ gathered around Him the first disciples and how He founded the Church through His preaching, His miracles and signs, and finally His death and resurrection. The Acts of the Apostles describe the spreading of the young Christian community, which received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Saint Paul described the mystery of the Church in an extraordinary way and from him above all, we learn of her greatness and glory. The great apostle led Mother Julia Verhaeghe (1910-1997), foundress of the Spiritual Family The Work to a profound understanding of the divine riches of the Church. Through Saint Paul’s letters God enkindled a fire in her heart: the fire of love for the Church she gives witness to this in the following text:

“The letters of Saint Paul became a precious and strengthening food for my soul. I discovered in them, if I may say so, the Church, and was granted a great love for the Mystical Body of Christ...Saint Paul became for me an instrument of God, a spiritual director and beloved brother, whose presence was real to me. In those days it was as if he went through a second conversion, toward the Heart of Jesus, and towards His Body, the Church.”
