Parish BBQ – Sunday, June 15, 2014

The Knights of Columbus have organized a free Parish BBQ for the whole family to be held on Sunday, June 15 in the green space behind the church building. In the event of rain, the BBQ will be held in the parish hall. All parishioners are invited to come and enjoy a free burger, get-together as a family, celebrate 'Fathers' Day', and meet fellow parishioners. There will be children's entertainment with a jumping castle and a popcorn machine. Voluntary donations will be accepted in support of the Sisters of Life, who do tremendous pro life work within our community. Note – we have permission from the City of Toronto for overflow parking at Bayview arena on that Sunday until 2 p.m.

General Meeting: Monday, June 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Trinity Room.

Breakfast at Pickle Barrel: Saturday, June 14 following the 9:00 a.m. Mass. All Knights are invited.

Marygrove Girls Camp - The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Toronto Central Council, helps over 1,000 girls each summer, registering eligible campers through home visits. Marygrove Camp is a residential camp situated on Georgian Bay, Ontario. Open to eligible girls ages 5 to 13, Marygrove provides a camping experience for children who may not otherwise have the opportunity to enjoy a camping adventure. Families who are experiencing financial or domestic hardship may contact the Society directly to determine their eligibility.

FAREWELL GATHERING
MSGR. AMBROSE SHEEHY & FR. ERIC MAH

Across our whole parish we are sad to see Msgr. Sheehy and Fr. Mah leave our midst; Msgr. Sheehy, 47 years a priest, for a well earned sabbatical and Fr. Mah to take up a new assignment as Associate Pastor at St. Leonard's Parish, Brampton.

Msgr. Sheehy and Fr. Mah will celebrate the 12:15 p.m. Mass on Sunday, June 22, 2014, which will be followed by a reception in the parish hall where everyone is invited to extend their best wishes.

"O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of Your sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body.... Bless their labours with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and in heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown."

St. Therese of Lisieux

Blessed Trinity Movie Night – On Friday, June 20 at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall, we will be showing the movie, SAINT JOHN BOSCO: Mission to Love, the moving, amazing portrayal of this kindhearted, loving apostle of youth. Bring your family and friends! Don't miss this opportunity to gather for fellowship, entertainment, refreshments and to be inspired by St. John Bosco, seen for the first time ever on the "big screen"! All proceeds will benefit St. Vincent de Paul's RESP program for children living in poverty in this parish. Everyone is welcome. For more information, please contact Bob Ossowski at 416-453-1494 or email bob.ossowski@gmail.com.

June the Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

... "Christ speaks: Learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart" (Mt 11:29) Only once, perhaps, did the Lord Jesus refer to his own heart in His own words, and he stressed this sole feature: "gentleness and lowliness", as if he meant that it is only in this way that he wishes to conquer man; that by means of "gentleness and lowliness" he wishes to be the King of hearts. The whole mystery of his reign was expressed. In these words, gentleness and lowliness, cover in a certain sense all the "riches" of the Redeemer's heart, of which St. Paul wrote to the Ephesians. But, also, that "gentleness and lowliness" reveal him fully, and enable us to get to know him and accept him; they make him the object of supreme admiration.

Pope John Paul II

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions
Month of June, 2014

General: That the unemployed may receive support and find the work they need to live in dignity.

Mission: That Europe may rediscover its Christian roots through the witness of believers.

THE FOUR CARDINAL VIRTUES
Prudence, Justice, Fortitude & Temperance

Source: Catechism of the Catholic Church #1806-1809

Prudence is the virtue that disposes practical reason to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it; "the prudent man looks where he is going."⁶⁵ "Keep sane and sober for your prayers" (1 Pet 4:7). Prudence is "right reason in action," writes St. Thomas Aquinas, following Aristotle (St. Thomas Aquinas, ST II-II, 47, 2). It is not to be confused with timidity or fear, nor with duplicity or dissimulation. It is called auriga virtutum (the charioteer of the virtues); it guides the other virtues by setting rule and measure. It is prudence that immediately guides the judgment of conscience. The prudent man determines and directs his conduct in accordance with this judgment. With the help of this virtue we apply moral principles to particular cases without error and overcome doubts about the good to achieve and the evil to avoid.

Justice is the moral virtue that consists in the constant and firm will to give their due to God and neighbor. Justice toward God is called the "virtue of religion." Justice toward men disposes one to respect the rights of each and to establish in human relationships the harmony that promotes equity with regard to persons and to the common good. The just man, often mentioned in the Sacred Scriptures, is distinguished by habitual right thinking and the uprightness of his conduct toward his neighbor...

Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause...

Temperance is the moral virtue that moderates the attraction of pleasures and provides balance in the use of created goods. It ensures the will's mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable. The temperate person directs the sensitive appetites toward what is good and maintains a healthy discretion...
