Working wonders in our community

"You don't have to look far to see the wonders being worked by ShareLife...in the pews of your parish, in the homes on your street, in your neighbourhood." ShareLife agencies provide competent, faith-informed care to those who turn to them for help, regardless of their beliefs or background. Last year, nearly 250,000 people in our Archdiocese were helped in more than 20 languages, receiving the compassion, care and respect they rightly deserve. In addition, countless others were assisted through outreach programs around the world.

-Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"On this final Lenten Sunday before Palm Sunday, Christ looks at us as he looks at the woman caught in adultery. Her sin, our sin is patent and undeniable. The question is: How do we look back at Christ? With the self-righteous yet guilty eyes of the scribes and the Pharisees who drop their stones but not their murderous intentions (which they now transfer to Jesus)? Or like the adulteress who remains alone before Jesus and who accepts with humble confidence the sentence of Christ: "I do not condemn you"? The woman gains "the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus" as her Lord. Thanks to that event, we accept the loss of all things, considering them as so much rubbish...especially our willfulness, our self-sufficiency, our meanness, our malice, our self-assertion, and our pride. She and we "remember not the events of the past" but instead enter upon the path that the Event who is Christ opens in "the mighty waters": the accumulation of all the tears shed throughout history. The Father opens a way, not in the sea, but in His Son's side."
