"My worst day clean is better than my best day using", exclaims Suzanne, as she shares the details of her past use of drugs and other substance abuse. "I was on medication constantly to deal with the side effects and was a chronic pain patient for 35 years. I was sick and tired of being sick and tired. With the support of Catholic Family Services, I was able to finally kick the habit." The Closed Trauma and Sister mentoring program was crucial to helping Suzanne get her life back on track. The positive influence of CFS sistering program supervisor, Valerie Anderson, and encouragement from other professional staff gave Suzanne the courage to try again. She sheds 'tears of joy' as she now speaks on behalf of CFS, sharing the detailed differences Catholic Family Services has made in her life. Over 77,000 individuals received help in getting their lives back on track through ShareLife-supported family services programs.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

“Forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us”

Source: Catechism of the Catholic Church #2839-2842

With bold confidence, we began praying to our Father. In begging him that his name be hallowed, we were in fact asking him that we ourselves might be always made more holy. But though we are clothed with the baptismal garment, we do not cease to sin, to turn away from God. Now, in this new petition, we return to him like the prodigal son and, like the tax collector, recognize that we are sinners before him (cf. Lk 15:11). Our petition begins with a "confession" of our wretchedness and his mercy...

Now - and this is daunting - this outpouring of mercy cannot penetrate our hearts as long as we have not forgiven those who have trespassed against us. Love, like the Body of Christ, is indivisible; we cannot love the God we cannot see if we do not love the brother or sister we do see (cf. 1 Jn 4:20). In refusing to forgive our brothers and sisters, our hearts are closed and their hardness makes them impervious to the Father's merciful love; but in confessing our sins, our hearts are opened to his grace...

This "as" is not unique in Jesus' teaching: "You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect"; "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful"; "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another" (Mt 5:48). It is impossible to keep the Lord's commandment by imitating the divine model from outside; there has to be a vital participation, coming from the depths of the heart, in the holiness and the mercy and the love of our God. Only the Spirit by whom we live can make "ours" the same mind that was in Christ Jesus (cf. Gal 5:25). Then the unity of forgiveness becomes possible and we find ourselves "forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave" us (Eph 4:32).

Ordination to the Sacred Order of Priesthood of Jesus Christ:

We rejoice with five new priests, Rev. Scott Birchall, Rev. Neiman D'Souza, Rev. Michael Simoes, Rev. Omar Alejandro Daza Hernandez and Rev. Marijan Sisko, who were ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, May 10 at St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, by His Eminence, Thomas Cardinal Collins. May God inspire them with zeal to proclaim the Word, celebrate the Eucharist and live their lives as Christ's presence in the world.
