"In our parishes, as in the neighbourhoods of the wider community, there are plentiful opportunities for neighbour to help neighbour... each person should ask: how can I be a good steward of the gifts I have received, so that I may make fruitful use of them for the glory of God and the service of my neighbour." – Most Rev. Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto.

When it comes to making a donation to ShareLife, there is no such thing as small change – a small gift today can have a big impact in someone's life. Every dollar you donate provides a person in need an opportunity to turn their life around. Wonders happen daily at our ShareLife agencies because your gift enables them to do so. By supporting shareLife, you are working wonders; providing shelter, care and respect for those living in our communities who most need it.

Today is the 3rd ShareLife Collection

Thank you for your generosity. Together we can

Saint Faustina's Prayer for Holy Church and for Priests

O my Jesus, I beg You on behalf of the whole church: Grant it love and the light of Your Spirit, and give power to the words of priests, so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to You, O Lord.

"Today's feast draws us to praise and glorify the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity, not only because of the great mercy They have shown to men, but also and especially in Themselves and for Themselves: first, by reason of Their supreme essence which had no beginning and will never have an end; next, because of Their infinite perfections, Their majesty, essential beauty and goodness. Equally worthy of our adoration is the sublime fruitfulness of life by which the Father continually generates the Word, while from the Father and the Word proceeds the Holy Spirit. The Father is not prior to, or superior to the Word; nor are the Father and the Word prior to or greater than the Holy Spirit. The three divine Persons are all co-eternal and equal among Themselves: the divinity and all the divine perfections and attributes are one and the same in the Father, in the Son, and in the Holy Spirit. What can man say in the presence of such a sublime mystery? What can he understand of it? Nothing! Yet what has been revealed to us is certain, because the Son of God Himself, "who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him" (Jn 1, 18). But the mystery is so sublime and it so exceeds our understanding, that we can only bow our heads and adore in silence. "O the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible are His judgments, and how unsearchable His ways!" exclaims St. Paul in today's Epistle (Rom 11, 33-36). "
