Working Wonders for our Faith

Men from all walks of life have decided to respond to God's call to dedicate their lives to His service and the salvation of souls. They come from different backgrounds, skill sets, ethnic communities, ages and economic situations. At ShareLife-funded agencies such as Serra House, Redemptoris Mater, and St. Augustine's Seminary, they undergo extensive theological education and practical field training. Through ShareLife, you are helping sustain the vocations for priesthood and inspire discernment for God's call. In 2012, ShareLife helped support over 70 priests and seminarians in their formation studies.

Pilgrim Virgin Statue In Your Home

The Legion of Mary invites parishioners to receive a visit of our Blessed Lady's statue to their homes to pray the Rosary. The visitation prayer takes 20 minutes after which the statue is left with the family, as they wish, for a week or longer if requested. Welcoming the visit of the Pilgrim Virgin statue with Rosary prayers is a beautiful way of celebrating special occasions such as: anniversaries and birthdays, and to ask Mary for very special intentions.

To request a visit of Our Lady's statue, please contact Sarah Fernandes at 416-730-1860 or Sylvia Leaver at 416-226-2744.

Profiting From Our Falls And Imperfections

As long as we have good will, our faults can serve to instruct us and help us to make progress. For they make us distrust ourselves and look for means to correct our imperfections. If, after committing a fault, we accept the humiliation that follows from it, this merits for us an increase of love. This is the way saints react. They are no more exempt from weakness than we are. Far from grieving on their account, they accept themselves as they are and make use of their imperfections to raise themselves nearer to God. Those falls must appear the more natural to us because, in the way of perfection, we remain children. It is inevitable, therefore, that we should make false steps. The little one who learns to walk unavoidably falls from time to time. "I have many weaknesses," said Therese [of Lisieux], "but I am never astonished because of them. I am not always as prompt as I should like to be in rising above the insignificant things of this world. For example, I might be inclined to worry about some silly thing I have said or done. I then recollect myself for a moment and say: 'Alas, I am still at the point from which I started.' But I say this with great peace and without sadness. It is truly sweet to feel weak and little."
