*Praying for the Dead
Month of November*

By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to a certain devotion. In November, it is the Holy Souls in Purgatory, those faithful Christians who have died and gone before us but who still must atone for their sins. The time they spend in Purgatory cleanses them so that they may enter Heaven free from all effects of sin.

Praying for the dead, especially for those we have known, is a requirement of Christian charity. Our own prayers and sacrifices can be offered up to relieve their suffering. Some or all of the following prayers can be incorporated into our daily prayers during this month.

Eternal Rest

One of the most commonly recited of Catholic prayers in times past, this prayer has fallen into disuse in the last few decades. Prayer for the dead, however, is one of the greatest acts of charity we can perform, to help them during their time in Purgatory, so that they can enter more quickly into the fullness of heaven.

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen”

“O Lord, who art ever merciful and bounteous with Thy gifts, look down upon the suffering souls in purgatory. Remember not their offenses and negligences, but be mindful of Thy loving mercy, which is from all eternity. Cleanse them of their sins and fulfill their ardent desires that they may be made worthy to behold Thee face to face in Thy glory. May they soon be united with Thee and hear those blessed words which will call them to their heavenly home: “Come, blessed of My Father, take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.”

Kolbe Eucharistic Mini-Retreats

Saturday, December 3, 2:00 – 4:30 pm at St. Brigid’s Church, 300 Wolverleigh Blvd., Toronto – Eucharistic Adoration. Father Charles Anang will speak on “The Three Stages of the Interior Life”.

Without life, what other “issues” exist?

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT FOR PRIESTS

That all strive to become perfect as our Heavenly Father is perfect:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That Holy Mass be continually offered for the life and needs of the world:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That our Eucharistic Lord be accessible and lovingly adored:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That the Gospel be proclaimed tirelessly, free from error:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That in sacramental absolution we seek and find our peace and joy:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That unity in prayer bring about unity among all Christians:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That local Churches and their leaders be ever loyal to the holy Father:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That all human life be protected and defended as sacred:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That God’s mercy extend daily to sinners, the dying and the souls in Purgatory:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

That youth be helped to become free of drugs and all sinful addictions:

Holy Spirit, make our priests holy.

GOD’S REASON

*I don’t know how to say it but somehow it seems to me
That maybe we are stationed where God wants us to be;
That little place we’re filling is the reason for our birth,
And just to do the work we do,
He sent us down to earth.
If God had wanted otherwise, I reckon He’d have made
Each one of us a little different, of a worse or better grade;
And since God knows and understands all things of land
and sea,
I fancy that He placed us here, just where He wanted us
to be.
Sometimes we get to thinking, as our labors we review,
That we should like a higher place with greater things to do;
But we come to the conclusion, when the envying is stilled,
That the post to which God sent us is the post He wanted filled.
And there isn’t any service we can scorn
For it may be just the reason God allowed us to be born.*
