Let's Talk About Mental Health

All Men and Women are invited
Tuesday November 28, 2017
7:00 pm in the Parish Hall

This talk will provide an overview of the continuum from mental health to mental illness. Issues pertaining to the impact, stigma, gender differences, key presenting signs and symptoms, common illnesses and ways to access to help will be covered. Dr. Andrea Levinson is the Psychiatrist-in-Chief, Health & Wellness, at the University of Toronto. She is responsible for the provision and management of psychiatric services to U of T students, primarily from the St. George campus. She supervises all of the psychiatric activity at the Service, and acts as a resource for the university community on mental health issues across the campus. She has been an active faculty member in the Department of Psychiatry since 2007. She is also a graduate of the Clinician Scientist Program and received a Master’s of Science degree for her research in that program. She has extensive experience in youth psychiatry, having founded an early intervention clinic for young people with new onset bipolar disorder at CAMH. Currently, she is a staff psychiatrist at CAMH.
