DEACON ERIC MAH

It seems only yesterday that you came to Blessed Trinity as a seminarian intern, but this weekend you are in our midst to be ordained in the Sacrament of Holy Orders as Deacon by His Grace Archbishop Thomas Collins. We rejoice with you and remember your inspiring presence as you journeyed along the way to this important day. We wish to offer you our prayers and congratulations as we join you in our prayers and thoughts this weekend. May Our Lady and the Holy Spirit ever guide you as you assume this new obligation to radiate the love of Christ as a Deacon in the Archdiocese of Toronto. We are joining you in thanking God for His countless graces and mercy.

Friends of Frassati High School Program

Open to Male Senior High School Students. Are you fostering a greater desire for spiritual growth in our Catholic faith? Would you like to learn how to be in the world, but not of it? Would you like to be more attentive to God's love...and to God's will, becoming a "Man of the Beatitudes"? As a senior high school student this is a critical time of formation and discernment. In pursuing your studies and giving thought to possible careers, you are also laying the foundation for adult life and its responsibilities. For information on registering for the program, please call Fr. Eric Rodrigues at 416-226-0262.

NOVEMBER MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

"...For the souls in purgatory, waiting for eternal happiness and for meeting the Beloved is a source of suffering, because of the punishment due to sin which separates them from God. But there is also the certitude that once the time of purification is over, the soul will go to meet the One it desires (cf. Ps 42; 62).

Contemplation of the lives of those who have followed Christ encourages us to lead a good, upright Christian life which makes us "worthy of the kingdom of God" (2 Thes1:5). Thus we are called to "supernatural vigilance", so that we can prepare ourselves each day for eternal life. As Cardinal John Henry Newman emphasized: "We are not simply to believe, but to watch; not simply to love, but to watch; not simply to obey, but to watch; ... and thus it happens that watching is a suitable test of a Christian". This is because to watch is "to be detached from what is present, and to live in what is unseen; to live in the thought of Christ as he came once, and as he will come again; to desire his second coming.

The prayers of intercession and petition which the Church never ceases to raise to God have great value. They are characteristic of a heart attuned to God's mercy. The Lord always lets himself be moved by his children's supplications, for he is the God of the living. During the Eucharist, through the general intercessions and the Memento for the dead, the assembled community presents to the Father of all mercies those who have died, so that through the trial of purgatory they will be purified, if necessary, and attain eternal joy. In entrusting them to the Lord, we recognize our solidarity with them and share in their salvation in this wondrous mystery of the communion of saints. The Church believes that the souls detained in purgatory are helped by the prayers of the faithful and most of all by the acceptable sacrifice of the altar, as well as by alms and other works of piety.

I therefore encourage Catholics to pray fervently for the dead, for their family members and for all our brothers and sisters who have died, that they may obtain the remission of the punishments due to their sins and may hear the Lord's call: "Come, O my dear soul, to eternal repose in the arms of my goodness, which has prepared eternal delights for you."
