The Jewish Background to the Mass
with Mark and Sue Neugebauer

Come fall in love with Jesus in the Eucharist as we learn together about the Jewish roots to the Mass and the Catholic faith. We will examine the Catechism, Papal Encyclicals, and writings by saints, popes, and other writers on the Jewish background of our worship. We will study the Passover, the Day of Atonement, the Old Testament types, and the Sacrificial System, and how they all point to Jesus. death on the cross and His giving us of His precious Body and Blood. We will look at the Synagogue and Jewish liturgical practices and see how the Church has inherited a very special legacy from her Jewish apostles and saints. The ancient Jewish wedding as fulfilled in the Sacrifice of the Mass will be explained as we, the Bride of Christ, learn how we participate in the nuptial feast of our salvation. Mark and Sue are Messianic Jewish Catholics and parishioners of Blessed Trinity.

Tuesday evenings in the parish hall: 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Part One: October 18 - November 15, 2011

The New
Mass Translation:
Whose Idea Was It?

Until the early 1960's, the Mass was celebrated in Latin throughout the world. At the Second Vatican Council, however, the Church held that the Mass could be said in the ordinary language of the people to allow for a more full participation. Shortly thereafter, an English translation was produced, but was always intended to be temporary – in anticipation of the current translation of the Roman Missal, which captures the richness of the original Latin text approved by Pope Paul VI in 1970. The structure of the Mass has remained the same, although additional prayers have been added, such as the feast days of various saints canonized by Blessed John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI, more prefaces, and additional Masses for different needs and intentions.

Over the next few weeks, the parish bulletin will include inserts explaining different aspects of the new translation of the Mass. Extra copies of these inserts will be made available at the parish office. For more information on the changes to the Roman Missal, please visit www.archtoronto.org/romanmissal.

World Mission Sunday – October 23, 2011

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday. It is the responsibility of all believers to spread the Gospel. We should be encouraged to deepen our realization that every Christian shares in the mission of the Church and that we should become more involved in today's missionary work. Guidance in this area is found in the Second Vatican Council document on the Church's missionary activity. There will be a national collection which is given to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith who distributes the funds to every mission bishop in order to assist in the day to day expenses of operating the diocese, as well as special projects, such as building churches/chapels, healthcare clinics, the training and support of catechists.

"Our Lady offers us the slender threads of a rosary – an ordinary, childish thing! But is it? The Creed is our declaration of faith and allegiance to the Holy Trinity, to the commandments of God and His spouse, the Church. Recite it slowly and let each word sink in – for thousands have died for these words and what they stand for. The Our Father is our prayer for the fellowship of men and women under the fatherhood of God, a prayer of love, trust, hope, and faith. The Hail Mary's are the angelic salutation that brought the incarnation and the redemption to this earth! Mary continually holds out to us, her children, the slender thread of a rosary, asking that we say it, perhaps because it is as slender as she, and as strong as the God we pray to." Catherine Doherty
