World Mission Sunday – October 23, 2011

Today is World Mission Sunday. Today, every Catholic community and parish throughout the world takes part in World Mission Sunday. It is a global effort to bring spiritual and material help to our brother and sisters who struggle in the most impoverished of places. Your kind support will help support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations, and will help Catholic Communities throughout the world become self-sufficient and flourish. Please be generous in your support of this important work.

Did you know that 26 of the 70 dioceses in Canada are considered Missionary Dioceses? This weekend of October 23rd, you will be able to learn more about these dioceses when we are visited by one missionary bishop, an Oblate of Mary Immaculate, the Most Rev. Vincent Cadieux. Bishop Cadieux was born in Alfred, Ontario in 1940, and was ordained to the priesthood at Vankleek Hill in 1966. He worked 25 years among the First Nations peoples. In 1991 he was named Bishop of the Diocese of Moosonee, and in 1997 he was elected the Bishop of the Diocese of Hearst, both located in Northern Ontario. As such, he represents two very needy mission dioceses located in our very own backyard! (Bishop Cadieux will speak at all Masses this weekend, except the 7:30 p.m. Mass on Sunday evening.)

GENEROSITY

Am I determined to give myself entirely to the Lord and not to put any limit on my generosity?

Do I observe as best as I can the first Commandment: Love God with your whole heart and your whole strength?

Do I express this love especially in a personal dedication to Christ, in an entire devotedness in His service?

Do I desire, in all circumstances, to please Him?

Do I go beyond the minimum required, and do I strive after perfection?

Have I a large heart, or a heart full of petty preoccupations?

Am I not selfish? Do I not allow myself to seek my comforts and personal advantages?

Does my generosity manifest itself by my prompt charity towards my neighbour?

Do I renew my generosity every morning during Mass, by a total offering of myself united to the Saviour's offering?
