Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for October

General: That Catholic Universities may more and more be places where, in the light of the Gospel, it is possible to experience the harmonious unity existing between faith and reason.

Missionary: That the World Mission Day may afford an occasion for understanding that the task of proclaiming Christ is an absolutely necessary service to which the Church is called for the benefit of humanity.

Brother Andre Canada's Forthcoming First Native Born Male Saint

Brother Andre's story has a lot to teach us. It begins in 1845 amidst a humble and poor family. At nine he loses his father and three years later his mother. His family disperses. He is so weak and frail that even those closest to him fear for his life. To earn a living, he commits himself to several jobs in both Canada and the United States. Finally he petitions the Congregation of Holy Cross to accept him, which they do reluctantly due to his frailty and poor health. With little prospect for success or impact, the young Andre is relegated to the role of doorman at College Notre Dame in Montreal.

Embracing his role, Andre now connects regularly with students, parents and various other people, many of whom leave him with prayer requests and special intentions. His response is direct and simple: entrust your prayers to Saint Joseph.

After his daily dinner, Andre makes it a point to visit the sick. Soon enough, thanks to a growing reputation for generosity and compassion, the sick begin to flock to College Notre Dame to meet the porter. It doesn't take long for people to begin bearing witness to and publicly sharing stories of powerful graces and healings resulting from Brother Andre.

For some twenty five years, Brother Andre will receive visitors from 6:00 am to 8:00 pm in his tiny streetcar office across from the college. With the help of many friends, Andre succeeds, in 1904, in building the first chapel on the field across from the college. With a growing reputation and number of visitors, his ministry quickly outgrows the scale and size of the chapel. The only solution is to expand the chapel, for the first time in 1908 and again in 1910. Still, the size of the chapel cannot match the growth in demand. The solution is clear: an even greater shrine to Saint Joseph.

Uneasy with his growing reputation while alive, Brother Andre's fame multiplied upon his death in 1937 and has not stopped since. In him people saw, see and will continue to see a man close to God. His life was devoted to prayer and compassion for others, especially those who suffer. "He was like us/them" was often heard, in reference to his empathy and love for everyday people and their everyday struggles.

In 1978, the Church declared him venerable, and then blessed in 1982. On February 19, we received news from Rome confirming the canonization of our very own Blessed Brother Andre this October 17. The founder of Saint Joseph's Oratory will be the second Canadian to be canonized by the Church, in the good company of Marguerite d'Youville.
