

St. Paul the Apostle and Immaculate Conception Churches

Graced by the constant, loving presence of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in our lives, energized by the intercession of Mary and the great Communion of Saints, and grounded in the Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Catholic Teaching, Sacrament and Prayer, we, parishioners of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, reach out to embrace all of God's children, encouraging them to receive the gift of eternal salvation, accept Jesus Christ as their Lord, and follow in his footsteps. We declare our solidarity with the poor of the world, and pledge to help them by sharing our love and bounty.

Lauda Sion Salvatorem

If you follow the Sunday Missal, you will see that for today’s Solemnity of Corpus Christi (the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ) there is a “Sequence” before Gospel Alleluia. A Sequence is an ancient liturgical hymn that in past times was sung as an extension of Alleluia; sequens in Latin means “follows.”

During the middle ages sequences were very popular and literally hundreds were used. When the Missal was revised after the Council of Trent in the late 1500’s, it was decided that there were just too many of them of dubious musical value and they ought to be eliminated. However, there were a small number of Sequences which were just too beautiful and too beloved to discard; so five of the very best were kept. When the Missal was again revised following the Second Vatican Council, fifty years ago, the Sequences were retained as an essential part of the musical heritage of the Church, which the Council called a “treasure of inestimable value.”

There are five Sequences still in use. The Dies Irae, the Sequence for the Funeral Mass, although regrettably no longer used at funerals, has been retained in the Liturgy of the Hours for All Souls’ Day. The Stabat Mater is sung in the Mass for Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15th. The Easter Sequence is Victimae Paschali; Pentecost has Veni Sancte Spiritus; and today’s feast of Corpus Christi has one of the nicest, composed by St. Thomas Aquinas, and which has been in constant use as part of the Mass for 800 years.

Each of these Sequences was kept because of its surpassing excellence — each is a masterpiece of Latin poetry set to a beautiful original melody. The Sequences are indeed beautiful but challenging for a choir to learn. Unlike a typical hymn that has the same tune repeated for each stanza, in the Sequence each stanza has a variation of the main tune, which makes up much their beauty.

Here is part of the Sequence for today’s Solemnity:

This the truth each Christian learns:
bread into his own flesh Christ turns,
to his precious blood the wine.

Sight must fail, no thought conceives,
but a steadfast faith believes,
resting on a power divine.

Here beneath these signs are hidden priceless things to sight forbidden.
Signs alone not things we see.

Blood and flesh as wine, bread broken;
yet beneath each wondrous token,
Christ entire we know to be.

This gives a hint of the beauty of St. Thomas’ poetry, without however the wonderful conciseness of the Latin. Lauda Sion Salvatorem, in hymnis et canticis — O Sion praise your Savior with hymns a songs!

Living the Gospel by helping women in crisis...

Early in life, Tanya was unfortunately sexually abused by her extended family in her native country, who regarded her as a worthless, dangerous person who should be chained up. She became suicidal and was admitted into the hospital. Tanya then fled to Canada as a refugee searching for safety and happiness. She first came to Street Haven three years ago through their Learning Centre, enrolling in the literacy and numeracy classes. The staff connected her to their Emergency Shelter, where she stayed and had access to legal aid and other vital supports to assist her through the refugee process. "I now have hope since I came to ShareLife supported Street Haven and know that I have the tools to move forward with my life." shares Tanya. Street Haven helped Tanya move forward with her life and she now lives in a safe home where she can start again.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish, or at www.sharelife.org

Humanitarian Relief – Famine in Africa

The Archdiocese of Toronto joins the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops and faith communities across Canada in launching a join appeal, in response to the desperate food crisis in South Sudan, Yemen, Nigeria and Somalia.

Reports suggest a total of 20 million people are on the brink of starvation in the regions. A declaration of Famine has not been made by UN agencies since 2011 when some 260, 000 people died in Somalia.

The world must not let those horrors be repeated.

The Government of Canada has created a "Famine Relief Fund" and will match every donation made up until June 30, 2017 by individual registered Canadian charities participating.

Those wishing to donate can do so through the parish, please make cheques payable to St. Paul's Church – African Famine Relief, yellow envelopes can be found on the table in the foyer of the church. Also you may call the Development Office at 416.934.3411 or online: <https://community.archtoronto.org>
