

St. Paul the Apostle and Immaculate Conception Churches

Graced by the constant, loving presence of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in our lives, energized by the intercession of Mary and the great Communion of Saints, and grounded in the Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Catholic Teaching, Sacrament and Prayer, we, parishioners of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, reach out to embrace all of God's children, encouraging them to receive the gift of eternal salvation, accept Jesus Christ as their Lord, and follow in his footsteps. We declare our solidarity with the poor of the world, and pledge to help them by sharing our love and bounty.

SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.
26 November 2017

“Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’” — Mt 25:34-36

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass 02001, 1988, 1970 CCD

First Reading + Ezekiel 34:11-12,15-17
Second Reading + 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

Seasonal, Part-time Job -Snow Removal

We would like to hire a person to clear the Patio and Walkways at St. Paul's. On Wed. and Thurs. mornings, at least a clear path to the parking lot would be required by 7:30 AM. Other mornings it could be a little later. The entire Patio and Walkways need to be kept clean. A snow blower is on site for an experienced handler.

Persons interested, should contact the Office Manager at 705-435-6325 Ext. 21

FROM THE DESK OF FR. GLASS:

In praise of Latin.

Cardinal Newman said that one of the main things that led him into the Catholic Church was his “love of the literature of religion.” I can say the same for myself – and in my case that includes the writings of Cardinal Newman. In my Catholic reading I was continually coming across bits of Latin, while at the same time, I had begun listening to Gregorian Chant. More and more, I was feeling that I was missing out on something that past generations had simply taken for granted: an easy familiarity with Latin.

At the time when I was working as an civil engineer, and growing in my faith, the idea came to me that it would not hurt to become acquainted with the Latin language. So I bought a copy of Wheelock's Latin and brought it to work. Spending a week or two on each chapter, during my lunch break, I soon finished the book. I found that Latin was an amazingly virile and versatile language.

A language is like a boat. It is meant for voyaging. Now that I had built the boat, I needed to sail it. St. Augustine was already one of my favorite saints, so I decided to start with him, reading his words in the language in which he wrote them. Without knowing it, I was a fulfilling one of the main imperatives of the Second Vatican Council: resourcement, getting back to the sources.

Our rule of faith is Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition. In order to better understand Tradition, we need to read the great Fathers of the Church in their original language. St. Jerome said that ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ. We can equally say that ignorance of Latin is ignorance of the Church. The historian Christopher Dawson wrote that Catholic faith is not possible without Catholic culture. The Latin language is woven into the fabric of our Catholic culture. To lose Latin is to lose our history, our roots, our identity.

Time and again, I have run into a prejudice against the use of Latin, which I do not understand. Pope Benedict XVI, in a letter to all the Bishops, stated: “What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too, and it cannot be all of a sudden entirely forbidden or even considered harmful. It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church's faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place.”

In his Apostolic Exhortation on the Eucharist, Pope Benedict asked that “future priests, from their time in the seminary, receive the preparation needed to understand and to celebrate Mass in Latin, and also to use Latin texts and execute Gregorian chant; nor should we forget that the faithful can be taught to recite the more common prayers in Latin, and also to sing parts of the liturgy to Gregorian Chant.”

The continued use of Latin in the Church requires no apology. It ought to be embraced warmly as an essential and cherished part of our Catholic culture.
