

St. Paul the Apostle and Immaculate Conception Churches

Graced by the constant, loving presence of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in our lives, energized by the intercession of Mary and the great Communion of Saints, and grounded in the Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Catholic Teaching, Sacrament and Prayer, we, parishioners of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, reach out to embrace all of God's children, encouraging them to receive the gift of eternal salvation, accept Jesus Christ as their Lord, and follow in his footsteps. We declare our solidarity with the poor of the world, and pledge to help them by sharing our love and bounty.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. GLASS:

The lives of the Saints.

It is natural to have favorite saints, and I have many favorites. Every saint is unique and each is a model of holiness. The saints not only exemplify the “high standard of ordinary Christian living” that we are all called to, but they are examples of truly heroic virtue that exceeds even that high standard. They do this not by dint of super-human effort, but by the grace of the Holy Spirit working in them.

Almost every weekday is dedicated to a particular Saint. In fact, every Saint has a designated feast day, which is recorded in a book called the Martyrology. The Saints for today include St. Ursula and her virgin companions who were martyred in Cologne in the 4th century. The Saints whom we honored this past week constitute a fairly random but representative sample.

This past Monday we honored St. Teresa of Avila, the great teacher of prayer and a “Doctor of the Church.” She was born in Spain in 1515, just as the Protestant Reformation was beginning in Germany. Without intending anything more than founding a single convent for a dozen nuns, God used her to begin a true reform of religion and institute a “golden age” of faith in Spain.

Tuesday: St. Marguerite d’Youville. Born near Montreal in 1701, she married and had six children, four of whom died in infancy. When her husband also died, she devoted the rest of her life to caring for the poor and the sick. She founded the order of “Grey Nuns.”

Wednesday: St. Ignatius, bishop of Antioch in Syria in the first century. As he was being escorted under armed guard to face martyrdom in Rome, he wrote a series of letters to the Churches of Asia Minor. Seven of those letters still exist and are the oldest Christian writings outside the New Testament.

Thursday: St. Luke, the author of a Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. He was a companion of St. Paul who refers to him as “the beloved physician.”

Friday: St. Paul of the Cross, who in the 18th century founded the Italian religious order, the Passionists, an order dedicated to preaching the love of God revealed in the Passion of Jesus.

Saturday: St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a nun of the order of the Visitation who lived in France in the latter half of the 17th century. Jesus appeared to her several times and asked her to spread devotion to his Sacred Heart. It is on account of her visions that this devotion became popular. The Basilica of the Sacred Heart at Paray-le-Monial is to this day an important pilgrimage site.

The Church continues to recognize “new” Saints. In the last few years Kateri Tekakwitha, Francois de Laval, Marie de l’Incarnation and Brother Andre have been added to our list of national saints. The Saints are special because they demonstrate the fullness of life in the Holy Spirit, whether they are called to a life of prayer, of preaching or of service.

All donations will go directly to our Cemetery Board for the upkeep of our parish cemeteries.

The Shepherds' Trust has a mission to provide, comfort and care for those who have steadfastly cared for us - our retired priests. As parishioners, we have our own memories of a Catholic priest who made a positive, meaningful and lasting impact in our lives.

Each year, thousands of people contribute to the Shepherds' Trust. The collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese on November 17th & 18th. Envelopes are provided in your offertory box and on the tables inside the church and out in the foyer.

We want our priests to retire safely and with dignity. The Shepherds' Trust allows us to help achieve this goal.

Your generosity is deeply appreciated.
