

*'Twas weeks before Christmas around the time shift
 The CWG was pondering a gift.
 With money they'd saved and lovingly tended
 They thought and they thought on how they'd spend it
 Suggestions arose but what came several times
 Was a church luxury, electronic chimes.
 They researched and hunted for a company that sells,
 A modern ringers called digital bells.
 The company came and gave us a pitch
 Telling us though not real, these bells are not kitsch.
 So the speakers were hung on the roof with such care
 So in multi-directions the tolls would blare;
 Weddings and funerals and 'Christmasy' songs
 The Angelus and hours and pre-Mass ding dongs.
 A wonderful sign of our hospitality
 Our parish mission theme's bourgeoning centrality.
 So the beautiful décor at the entrance so bright
 An audio treat and a visual highlight.
 Christmas is here and the parish is set
 Celebrating God's kingdom, here and not yet.
 The ministries have been working and envisioning anew
 Elevating the parish to a level that's true.
 So everything is ready and the nativities are set
 To welcome parishioners and ones we haven't yet met.
 The preparations are done and the work is complete
 All that remains is to try to find a seat
 And raise our voices for this glorious event
 When the Word that is God from heaven was sent.
 God's kingdom unfolds with the Word that was spoke
 Bringing light to a world that was unknowingly broke.
 So as we exit and hear the chimes toll
 A ringing reminder that it's good for the soul
 That that Word lives in us is what we pray
 Merry Christmas to all this splendiferous day.*
