Ruminations ....

My last passport expired over seven years ago. From that you can rightly conclude that I am not a big traveller. Much like my dad, my favorite travel destination is home. Travelling outside Ontario always makes me a little anxious. Even crossing the Ottawa River into Quebec leaves me a bit unsettled so crossing into international territories is low on my list of exciting things to do. There is no foreign place that is on my bucket list, and if the truth be told, neither Rome nor the Middle East are remotely must see locals. My holy land is the Rocky Mountains, Banff, Jasper or Whistler. However, I have decided to get my passport. It has taken me over two months to get motivated to do it and fill out the paperwork and resolve to sit for those horrid passport pictures. Last Friday I needed to run some errands and pick up items from our religious supply store, things like hosts and wine so since it is in the vicinity I thought I could kill two birds with one stone and drop my application off at the Passport Office in Scarborough behind Scarborough Town Centre. As I got off the elevator on the second floor I was greeted by a commissionaire who very politely informed me if I was looking to drop off or pick up. I said drop off and he informed me that the line was around the corner. I looked at the line, then at the waiting area and I gulped. I couldn't see the end of the line because it was around the corner, but the waiting area was standing room only. As I proceeded around the corner to join the ranks of the slow trudge to the reception attendant to only then join the official waiting mob, I was thankful I had packed a book and a bottle of water. When I finally made it to the front of the line I asked the attendant if it is always this busy and he said usually on Fridays and Mondays. So I was given the number N047 and I had to watch the screen to find out what kiosk I could submit my paperwork. Of course there were no seats available and even if there were, it would have been too claustrophobic and after trying to read standing up, I put my book away and became entertained by the people and the proceedings. Nothing in my book would have been as entertaining. It took a long time for my number to near the top and the anticipation became almost as exciting as a bingo game. There were four different letters, P, L, T, and N and every time a new number appeared on the screen a ping sounded and everyone looked up. Finally it was my time and I went to kiosk number 5. Becky was very nice but as she looked over my paperwork she informed me that my birth certificate was unusable as a couple of the numbers had worn off from being in my wallet for years. I would need to get a new one. As we looked at the date of issue, it was almost 50 years to the day since I received this copy for hockey purposes. So I asked her, "Are you saying my birth certificate is too old?" She very nicely said, "I am afraid so!" As a consolation prize she provided me with a ticket which means I don't have to wait in line when I return to re-submit. Who wants to travel anyway?!!!

The Word of God is alive and speaks to each of us in a unique way. Very similar to Lectio Divina, Breaking Open the Word provides an opportunity to pray, reflect and encounter the gospel reading for the upcoming Sunday on a personal level and experience how the living word intersects with our lives today.

You are invited to explore the Word of God and how it is speaking to you through Breaking Open the Word the first Wednesday of each Month 7:00 – 8:30 pm. This is a time to explore the Word of God and to be nurtured in Word and community. Come as you are, bring a friend! All are welcome!

The next Breaking Open the Word gathering is:
Wednesday, February 6th, 2019 @ 7:00 – 8:30 p.m

Food Box

The Newmarket Food Pantry is always in need. If you can please place non-perishable food items in our food box located in the foyer. Thank you

Dates to Remember

*Confirmation Parent and Candidate Catechesis Meeting*

Monday, January 28th @ 7:00pm to 8:30pm

Meeting for parents and candidates

Important information shared...Candidates meet their group leaders and find out when their small groups will meet, and when they will be Confirmed in the Spring. We expect both parent and candidate to attend as we venture into the second half of our Confirmation prep. There are no make up meetings.

Breaking Open the Word

Refection forms

All the children and youth preparing to celebrate the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation are expected to reflect on Sunday's Gospel. We gather as a community of faith... we listen and we reflect on the living Word of God. Hats off to ... Briar B., Peter S., Olivia T., Christopher M., Nathan H., Abegayle W., Hayden W., Lily S. for your reflections for The Wedding Feast of Cana

First Communion

It was great to see so many parents at the Jan 21st Parent Meeting. The meeting was most informative... with Catherine Ecker sharing many faithful insights on how we, as Catholics, are called to live. "A Catholic life of prayer leads to a life of action- a life that reflects what we pray." We are sharing in an exciting journey ... responding to God's invitation to live in union with God and one another. For the parents who missed the meeting, you need to contact the parish office asap.

YCDSB Kindergarten Registration

Registration has begun in all York Catholic schools. We look forward to welcoming your child into our schools, where we emphasize academic success using a curriculum that is fused with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. You can register your child at your local Catholic school.

For more information, check the parish bulletin board or visit our website at www.ycdsb.ca/admissions.
