Sunday Masses are for ALL GOD'S PEOPLE

I won a CBC coffee cup a number of years ago by answering a couple of trivia questions on one of the afternoon talk shows. They were interviewing Greg Joy who won a silver medal in high jump at the Montreal Olympics and so all the trivia revolved around the modern day Olympics. The Olympics were my passion and one of the primary reasons I decided to study Sports Administration. As long as I was talking to the radio host I was fine. It helped that he had been a high school classmate at Newmarket High who went off to study journalism. In fact, after I correctly answered the two questions on the Olympics-basic questions- when and where were the two Olympic Games held in Italy, the show producer asked me for my phone number because the host wanted to call me back and catch up on life's happenings. However when Greg Joy tried to engage me in a conversation, I got a bit tongue tied and it seemed like my heart had risen to my throat and was pumping on overdrive. There are certain people with whom I just cannot speak normally. Another person was Paul Henderson, the Paul Henderson of the winning goal in the 1972 Russia series. He was at my brother's wedding and I just babbled away nonsensically. I'm sure he thought that I got the looks but Norm got the brains, and everybody knows that Norm didn't get the brains. There have been a couple of times when I have been designated to pick up various presenters, Archbishop Hayes of Halifax, and Fr. Bill Burke. These are two gentlemen for whom I have the highest esteem for their great work in liturgy. These occasions also saw the rise of my heart into my throat reducing me to a babbling idiot. Well it is nearing one of those events again. With the arrival of Dr. Massimo Faggioli there is a bit of taxiing service that needs to be done. I have never met Dr. Faggioli but I have watched him extensively on YouTube, and was thereby inspired to read several of his books and as I write this, I am anticipating the arrival of one of his books to read prior to his arrival. I read his books with highlighter in hand which makes it hard to lend out because so many of the pages are coloured yellow by the highlighting. I am so thrilled to be able to welcome Dr. Faggioli to our parish. He has so many fascinating insights about who we are as Church and he presents an incredibly fair and balanced vision. Now one of my great fears is dining with him. The organization that is arranging his presence will celebrate a couple of meals with him. Luckily there are enough extroverts on that committee to carry the conversation and I can sit and listen as the wisdom pours forth. It is so exciting to have opportunities to be in the presence of truth and wisdom. I will likely never have another opportunity to rub shoulders with a great expert on the Church. I hope that you can find some time to join us. One of the great flaws of our Church is not providing enough opportunities to learn more about our faith. This is one such incredible opportunity. By the way, the Olympics were held in Cortina in the winter of 1956 and Rome in the summer of 1960 – as if you didn't already know.

First Communion

We are blessed as a parish community by the children who have received their First Communion. Our prayers and support are with you and your families. These celebrations help the entire parish to pause and reflect on our identity as a Eucharistic community. The gift of the Eucharist unites all of us. We look forward to seeing the children on the 2nd, 3rd.....communion.

A special thank you to all our Catechists, First Communion and Confirmation.

We are grateful for all their time and talents, helping our children and youth in their walk with Christ.

The young people and their parents have been truly blessed by your commitment to our Initiation Ministry

Breaking Open the Word Reflection Forms

All our youth preparing for Confirmation are expected to complete their reflection forms every Sunday. This activity is an important dimension of our Confirmation prep.

'High 5' to the following young people...Briar B., Aidan D., Noah P., Kekeli G., Nicholas B., Leah C., Lily S., John C., Christopher M., Avry E., Gabe P., Serina V.

Remember to ask the Holy Spirit to be your strength!

Confirmation Mass Times

Sat. May 25th @ 4:30pm & Sun. May 26th @ 11am

Sat. June 1st @ 4:30pm & Sun. June 2nd @ 11am

Sat. June 8th @ 4:30pm & Sun. June 9th @ 11am

All candidates need to arrive 1/2 hour early for their Confirmation Mass. This is very important as Fr. Roy will meet with them to talk about what will occur during the Confirmation liturgy.

As a parish community let us pray for all our terrific young people... May they continue to take the time to listen, reflect and respond to all the wonderful gifts God has given them, as they embrace the call to discipleship and follow Jesus' way throughout their lives.
